Antioch's 'red hot' July 4 set to honor firemen's 75th

At press time, there was no word from the Antioch Village Hall confirming whether or not fireworks will be part of the village's July 4 celebration. Those interested are advised to call the village hall at (312)395-1000.

Until Tuesday's rainfall, dry conditions had the fireworks set for the Aug. 13 party for the 75th anniversary of the Antioch Fire Dept.

The Antioch area will be feting the Fourth of July a day early this year, with all the festivities planned for Sunday, July 3.

Antioch Parks and Recreation will be sponsoring the big gala with a tribute to 75 years of service from the Antioch Fire Dept. the main focus of the festivities.

At 1 p.m. on Saturday, July 3, the July 4 parade will start moving down Main St from the high school, ending as usual at Williams Park.

The fire department will be hosting waterfights at 2 p.m.

The Antioch Aqua Center will be open to the public that day.

There will be Little League activities and many children's games.

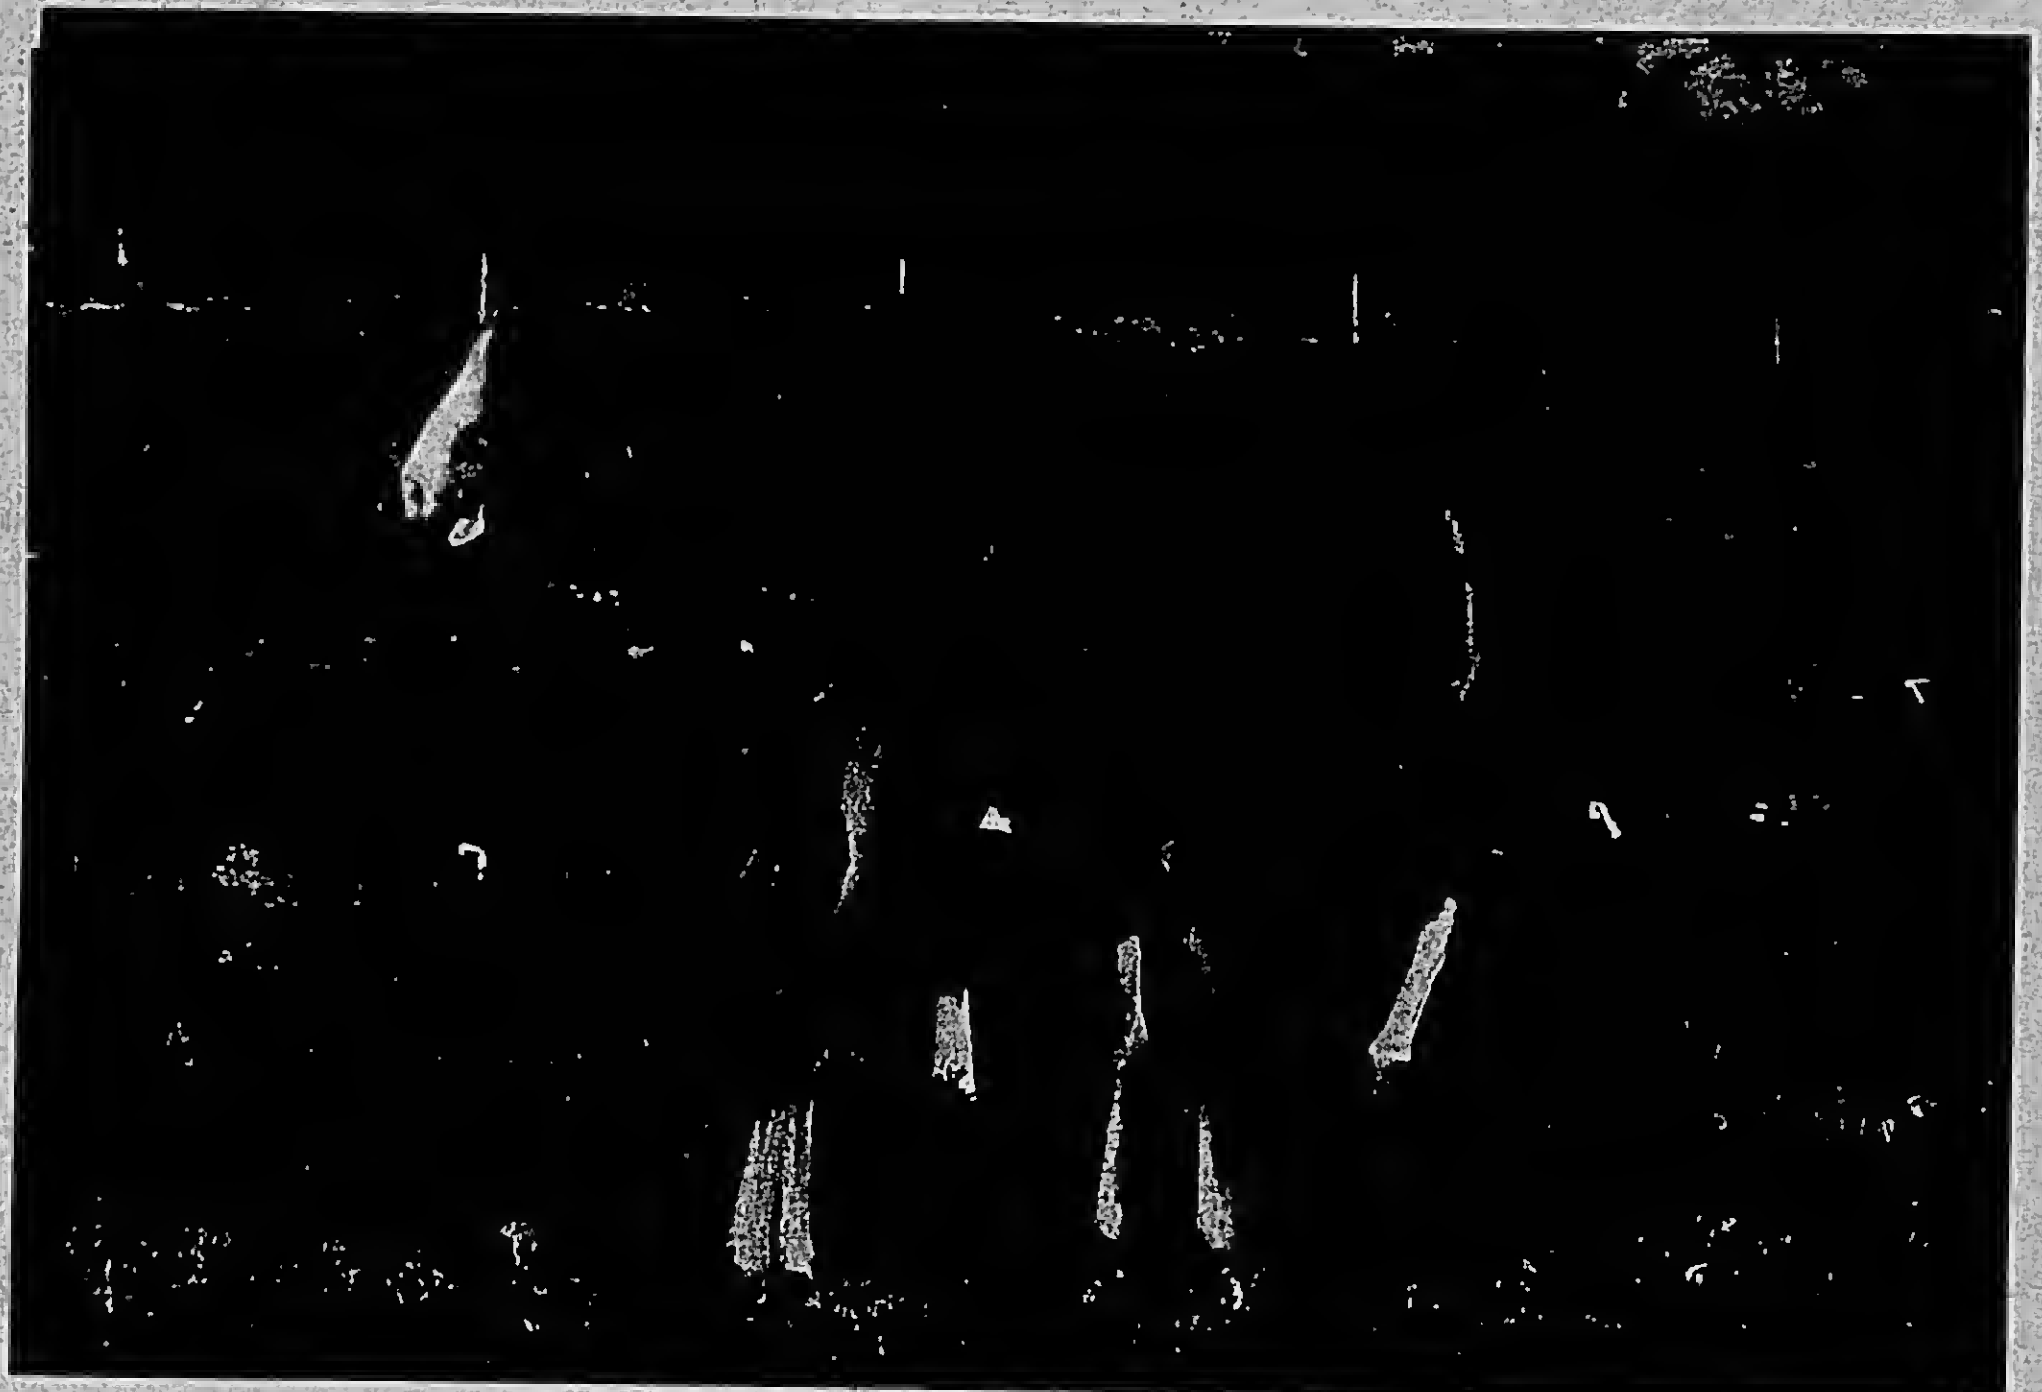

On the July 4 (July 3) musical agenda are Bernie Gunty and the Peptones and Ernie Levas who will take over the microphone at 5:30 p.m. with his dynamite dance music until 9:30 p.m.

Headline error draws apology

The Antioch News-Reporter had two stories of lead caliber for the June 24 issue. One concerned the village board meeting and the other, the results of the Emmons Grade School Board of Education meeting.

After it was decided to go with the village board story, the headline for the Emmons story inadvertently was placed over the village board story on the front page. The newspaper apologizes for the mistake.

Those who have been wondering all week about the Emmons Board nixing consolidation suggestions and going for a tax rate hike referendum in the November election can read about it on Page 5 of this issue.

No foal-ing around!

This frisky little fellow and his mama ramped in green pastures hereabouts until Mather Nature turned off the spigot, letting fields and lawns without sprinkling turn brown. Lake County's equine population is estimated at 8-

Santino turns Harbor Ridge over to owners

About 50 property owners were present at a meeting where former owner and developer of the homes and condominiums at Harbor Ridge, at Rte. 59 and Grass Lake Rd., Tom Santino, turned the supervision of the properties over to them.

Two property owners associations were formed and officers were elected. Dennis Johnson is president of the Harbor Ridge Home Owners Assn. and Ray Traeger is president of the Harbor Ridge Condo Owners Assn.

Santino had previously declared bankruptcy and the Harbor Ridge Country Club, which is now known as the Antioch Golf Course, had gone into receivership.

8 want Miss Antioch's crown, 8 trying for Little Miss title

The Annual Miss Antioch and Little Miss Antioch contests will actually open the village's Fourth of July celebration at 6:30 p.m., on Saturday, in the Antioch High School auditorium.

There are eight contestants vying for the Miss Antioch crown: Monica Chavez, 16, daughter of Otto and Marie Chavez, junior at ACHS; Denise Bosk, 16, daughter of Al and Cathy Bosk, senior at ACHS; Edie Sheehan, 16, daughter of Ken and Vicky Sheehan, senior at ACHS; Traci Sala, 17, daughter of Bill and Diana Sala, senior at ACHS; Jill Ozga, 17, daughter of Sally and Bill Ozga, senior at ACHS; Kristal Gust, 17, daughter of Steve and Char Gust, senior at ACHR; Tracy Metz, 17, daughter of Irvin and Patricia Metz, senior at ACHS and Stefanie Vogt, 17, daughter of Ron and Jacque Vogt, senior at ACHS.

There are also eight little Antioch misses who want to win the title of Little Miss Antioch: Holly Fales, 6, daughter of Larry and Sherry Fales, first grade at Emmons; Christina Plotz, 6, daughter of Richard and Linda Plotz, Emmons; Nicole Schaller, 6, daughter of Rusty and Cindy Schaller, first grade at St. Peters; Emily Sobczak, 6, daughter of Wayne and Cathleen Sobczak, St. Peters; Amber Dusak, 7, daughter of Russ and Beth Dusak, will go into second grade in fall.

Other Little Miss contestants include Michelle Elliot, 7, daughter of Michael and Mary Elliot, second grade at Antioch Grade School; Jennifer Gussarson, 8, daughter of Alan and Caryn Gussarson and Tamara Siwula, 8, daughter of Casey and Janet Siwula, Oakland School.

Plan now for Connection marathon in August

Whether you can manage 20 to 55 miles (or less), and are motivated by a sense of adventure, exercise or just good will, the Connection Bike-Walk-Run-Skate-A-Thon should get you moving.

It may seem a little early to be thinking of that now, but it takes time to collect pledges and to get muscles in shape for distance biking, walking, running or skating (non-motorized).

Slated for August 7th, the Bike-Walk-Run-Skate-A-Thon will start out in Butler Park, Libertyville and run through gently rolling countryside where participants will find checkpoints that provide light refreshments along the route. Lunch will be provided at the finish line for participants.

Pledges collected by the participants will benefit Connection Telephone Crisis Intervention and Referral Service, a United Way Agency that serves Lake, Northern Cook and McHenry Counties.

New Schwinn and Raleigh 10-speed bicycles will be awarded to participants who collect between $300 and $400 in pledge money. Sony Sports FM Walkman radios and dinners for two at fine area restaurants will be awarded for lesser amounts. If you are interested in the traveling trophy, get a team together and call the office for further details. There will also be a raffle for Cubs and White Sox tickets.

To be eligible to participate, pick up a pledge form at your local bicycle shop or call Connection, (312)362-3381.

The Connection crisis and referral line, (312)367-1080, is manned 24 hours a day every day of the year by volunteers specially trained to handle crisis intervention and to refer callers to the appropriate agencies for further professional and informational assistance. The Bike-Walk-Run-Skate-A-Thon is one of three major fundraisers held each year to help offset costs incurred by this not-for-profit organization, partially funded by the United Way.

For more information about the Bike-Walk-Run-Skate-A-Thon, call the Connection office, (312)362-3381.

Top students get scholarships

Recipients of the College of Lake County trustees' merit scholarships for the 1988-89 school year have been announced.

The scholarships are awarded to outstanding graduates of Lake County area high schools. The awards represent full freshman year tuition waivers, with automatic sophomore year renewal for those students who maintain a "B" average.

Recipients are nominated by their high schools and must have a grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

Recipients include Mary Ann Bartels of Libertyville, a graduate of Libertyville High School; Michael Castiglione of Mundelein, a graduate of Mundelein High School; and Timothy Donahue of Mundelein, who graduated from Carmel High School for Boys.

Waukegan recipients are Tracy Verne of Waukegan East High School and Wendy Brown of Zion-Benton High School.

Recipients Shannon Dvorscak, a graduate of Grayslake Community High School, and Jean Miner, a graduate of Round Lake Senior High School, are both from the Round Lake area. Julie Freund of Ingleside and Grant Community High School, Brandon Parkhurst of Antioch and Antioch High School, and Susan Reimold of Buffalo Grove and Adlai Stevenson High School are also recipients.

From Waukegan West High School is Nicole Rixie of Gurnee. Another recipient, Kari Ann Smith of North Chicago High School, is a resident of North Chicago.

From Wadsworth, winners are Jane Forcier, a graduate of Warren Twp. High School, and Susan Hartlaub, a graduate of Woodlands Academy.

July 4th driver's holiday

All Secretary of State offices and facilities will be closed for Independence Day on Monday, July 4.

Secretary of State Jim Edgar said downstate driver services facilities outside Cook County, which are normally open Tuesday through Saturday will be closed Saturday, July 2. They will reopen Tuesday, July 5.

Veterans honor Klemm

Another honor has been presented to state Rep. Dick Klemm (R-Crystal Lake) of the 63rd Dist., standing right, this one by the Illinois chapter of the Vietnam Veterans Leadership Program. Klemm, who is the Republican spokesman for the Executive and Veterans' Leadership Council. Klemm was honored for supporting issues important to Vietnam veterans, including job development, placement and counseling. Making the presentation of a lithograph of the Vietnam veteran's memorial in Washington, D.C., are, from left, organization officials Wayne Cloyd and Thomas Stark.

Assn. cites Rep. Klemm

The Illinois Assn. of School Boards (IASB) has recognized State Rep. Dick Klemm (R-Crystal Lake) for his work with member school boards throughout the state. In addition to supporting the association's legislative agenda, Rep. Klemm was honored for his role in the 1988 IASB Legislative Forum.

Klemm received a certificate of appreciation that recognized his service to the IASB and for his efforts to advance the cause of member school boards in Illinois.

"In this day and time, it takes a lot of commitment to make things work at the local school level," Klemm said. "As a former school board president, I know that our school boards must be both responsive to the needs and concerns of their residents, but also able to look into a crystal ball and predict the future. It isn't an easy job. Tough choices require people who aren't afraid of a challenge."

Park will get bed of roses

Lehmann Park in Lake Villa will bloom with beauty because of a bequest made by a resident. Felix "Phil" Kotowicz wants to donate $500 to the village for a permanent rose bed and plaque in memory of his wife at the entrance to the park.

Prior to her death earlier this year she planted and maintained two rose beds in the park for the enjoyment of all who visited there.

Ban on multi-units extended to Dec. 31

Open space advocates and anti-growth proponents will delight in the fact that at least one Lake County municipality is going slow on growth and development.

Fox Lake trustees voted to extend an 18-month-old moratorium on multiple unit construction another six months—through Dec. 31, bringing forth a beam of approval from Mayor William Dam and the assertion:

"I think we're the only village in Lake County to have any kind of moratorium on building."

Fox Lake shutdown apartment and condo construction not long after Dam, a practicing physician, took office three years ago.

"The reason was simple," Dr. Dam explained. "I discovered only 48 percent of our multi-unit housing was owner occupied as compared with the national average of 60 percent. I felt it only made sense to catch up before building more condos and apartments."

The end of the ban also is expected to coincide with completion of Fox Lake's revised master plan when officials believe it will be appropriate to take a look at Fox Lake's housing mix.

Looking toward the center of the county and the burning open space controversy over Picket Fence Farm near Grayslake, the bearded medical man said he would like to see an open space policy formulated jointly by the county and the Lake County Municipal League representing every village.

Water's Edge opens Family Fun Day July 10

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Renters are preparing to officially move into the luxurious Water's Edge apartment complex on Deep Lake this weekend. Rents range from a low of $585 for a one-bedroom unit to $630 for a two bedroom with one bath and $670 for a two bedroom with two baths. There is a $50 per month premium for a unit with a view overlooking Deep Lake and $25 more for a third-floor unit with a cathedral ceiling.

First building to be occupied has 36 units on a hill overlooking the southwest shore of Deep Lake. The parking lot serving it is reached by a newly-paved drive. Scheduled to follow are two other buildings, also with 36 units each.

Although roadblocks have been put up by the village board since the project began two years ago, some have been lowered in past weeks. This has paved the way for the first residents to move in this weekend.

One of the last hurdles was occupancy permits. The village board voted last week to reverse a decision of one month earlier it alone had the power to grant such permits. As of June 22 the required permits could be issued when three approvals have been given each building. They are by Lane Kendig, the village's contract planner; the Lake County Building Dept., the village's contract inspector; and Applied Technologies Inc. of Brookfield, Inc., the village engineer. All three are to inspect the buildings together or separately and work out any deficiencies through the village attorney, John Mullen. He, in turn, will discuss them with James Follensbee of Lake Forest, the local representative for the developers that include Pickus Const. Co. of Waukegan and E.F. Hutton Co., the investment brokerage firm.

Reversal of the decision to have board alone approve the permits came after a one-hour closed-door meeting of the board. Other matters were discussed in the meeting, but this was the main one. The unanimous change-of-mind vote came near the end of a four-hour meeting attended by Follensbee and his Chicago attorney.

Follensbee has told the village board repeatedly he wants to have the best development of its type in Lake County and work with the village board. He said having a village board approve occupancy permits was another of the obstructions placed in the way of the project since planning began two years ago and construction starting last fall. Follensbee said he would seek legal relief if the harassment did not stop. This was communicated to village officials several times over the past six weeks as the first building neared completion.

As of inspections last week there were minor problems found. One is landscaping, which has been agreed will be difficult to accomplish in the face of the current drought. The other was a question about how floor joists in the building are anchored to the beams. Follensbee promised these and any other matters will be remedied as quickly and as efficiently as time, material and manpower allow.

Seventh annual Family Fun Day for all residents of Lake Villa Twp. will be Sunday, July 10. The all-day event in the township park at Fairfield Rd. and Grand Ave. starts at 10 a.m.

Purpose of the program is to bring township residents together to enjoy a reasonably-priced day in the sun. They can either bring a picnic basket or purchase all they want to eat and drink on the grounds.

Food to be served are hamburgers, hot dogs, bratwurst, Italian sausage and corn on the cob, all for 50 cents each. Beer and wine will also be 50 cents while soda and coffee are 25 cents each.

A day full of activities for young and old plus some special exhibitions have been scheduled. A U. S. Army helicopter exhibition team consisting of two units will put on a show at 3 p.m. This group is provided courtesy of the Army's Round Lake Beach recruiting station.

There will be a martial arts show at 1:30 p.m. Throughout the day there will be music by a disc jockey.

Competitions include a fishing derby for youths at 10 and 11 a.m., big wheel races for children under the age of five at 1 p.m., watermelon-eating contest at 2 p.m. and whipped-cream contest at 2:30 p.m. for everyone and a daylong volleyball tournament. Sunni the bird will make a special guest appearance at 4:30 p.m.

"Everyone is encouraged to attend," said Paul Combs, a spokesman for the volunteer planning committee. "This is designed to be a non-political fun day for the whole family."

29th picnic planned by civic body

Venetian Village Civic Assn. will hold its annual picnic Sunday, July 17. It will be at the association hall, 37300 Capillo St., Venetian Village from noon to 7 p.m.

This will actually be the 60th anniversary observance of the homeowners' group and its 29th annual picnic.

Served will be a one-half chicken dinner at a price of $4 for adults and $2 for children. There also will be adult and children's games, refreshments and live music. President Robert Hreno invites everyone to attend. He said it will be a fun-filled event.

Hydrant flushing next week

Lake County Public Works Dept. will flush hydrants in the Fox Lake Hills area starting Monday, July 11, and continuing daily through Friday, July 22.

This may result in discolored water, reduced water pressure at times and water flush on streets. Residents of the area are asked to be alert for these conditions.

DOCTOR'S FORUM

by Dr. Mark Bowman

WHEN SHOULD YOU CALL A DOCTOR?

This article is fifth of a series dealing with commonly encountered first aid problems. Proper first aid administration and appropriate physician follow up are discussed. Today tips are given on seizures and fainting.

Convulsions (Seizures): Falls, frothing at the mouth, stiffening of the body, uncontrollable movements and unconsciousness may indicate some form of seizure. The first and most important first aid action is to prevent the person from harming himself. Remove any hard or sharp objects from the area. Try to loosen tight clothing, but do not attempt to restrain the person.

When convulsions stop, turn the person on his left side to keep mouth fluids from draining into the lungs, which could later result in pneumonia. If the person had an object in his mouth when the seizure began, it may have been aspirated into the windpipe, resulting in suffocation. Therefore, immediately check for normal breathing after the person is turned to his left side. Emergency help should be sought following any seizure.

Fainting: Fainting usually occurs as a result of emotional stress. The person may be pale, sweating, dizzy and may experience nausea or vision disturbance. Cold skin, numbness and tingling hands or feet may also occur.

First aid consists of lying the person on his back, elevating legs and loosening clothing. This will help increase the blood flow to the head. If the person vomits, turn him to the left side to prevent fluids from draining to the lungs. Always call your doctor following fainting episodes. Fainting may indicate cardiovascular or neurological problems.

For more information about seizures and fainting, please call the Heritage Medical Center, 312/395-0085.

Chamber looking for activities

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry is looking for ideas regarding some projects members feel are important to Antioch. The chamber also needs to know if anyone has any fall activities that they would like to let the membership know about.

Due to the increase in traffic, and the chamber's desire to have Antioch look its best to residents and summer visitors, the chamber would like to ask that everyone be extra vigilant in their cleanup efforts. That little extra effort is sure to pay off—for everyone.

New chamber members are: Pest Control Services, Inc. 40329 Bluff Lake Rd. (312)395-4030; Dr. Lee Tisa & Assoc., 800 N. Board nixes school mix, adds tax hike to ballot

At its June board meeting, the Emmons School Board decided to ask the voters to approve a building expansion and educational tax increase in an April, 1989, referendum.

This decision culminates a year of long-range planning in which the Emmons School Board studied substantial data which helped make the decision about how to deal with the future of Emmons School.

According to Supt. Jill Ballock, information was gathered on a variety of topics, including building capacity; the Emmons building is being used at 99 percent capacity based on current enrollment of 218 and programs in place. Building program capacity is 225 students.

Information also included enrollment projections. With no new subdivisions, Emmons is expected to reach an enrollment of 270 by 1992-93. Residential expansion will substantially increase this number.

The Emmons Board has seriously considered consolidation with Grass Lake Dist. 36 or Antioch Dist. 34. While each of these districts offers some advantages, projections indicated that consolidation with either district would not offer any real gain in assessed valuation per pupil. There would be an eventual loss of revenue.

Ballock remarked that a building referendum approved next April will not result in the building addition being utilized until 1990.

"The Emmons School Board has decided to present the community with relevant information in the 1988-89 school year and to elicit their support for expansion next spring. Emmons' enrollment has grown 30 percent in the past four years, and we have exceeded the capacity of our present building," Ballock stated.

"The Emmons Board is proud of the achievements of the students and staff and feel a responsibility to see that components of a fine educational program are sustained," she added.

The board will be developing a timeline to deal with the numerous details leading to a successful referendum next April. A citizens steering committee will be formed during the school year to disseminate information about the referendum needs.

The Emmons School Board is comprised of President Alice Gantar, Vice-president Pam Pierson, Secretary Sandy Steffenburg, and members Phil Dahl, Clare DeMartini, John Petkus and Dick Ruck.

Charge ex-teacher in child sex abuse

An Antioch resident, Alan B. Floor, 34, an ex-school teacher at Lake Villa Intermediate School, was arrested June 21 on eight counts of aggravated criminal sexual abuse committed against two of his students, Lake County Sheriff Clinton Grinnell said.

The Lake County Children's Advocacy Center investigative team, composed of Lake County Juvenile Officer Portia Wallace, investigator Mark Pleasant and investigators from the sheriff's office reopened the investigation in May when new information was obtained in the year-old case.

The original complaint in April, 1987, charging Floor with sexual abuse was stalled because there was not enough evidence to substantiate the filing of a criminal complaint. However, the investigators' persistence in collecting bits and pieces of information brought forth enough evidence to reopen the case, Grinnell said.

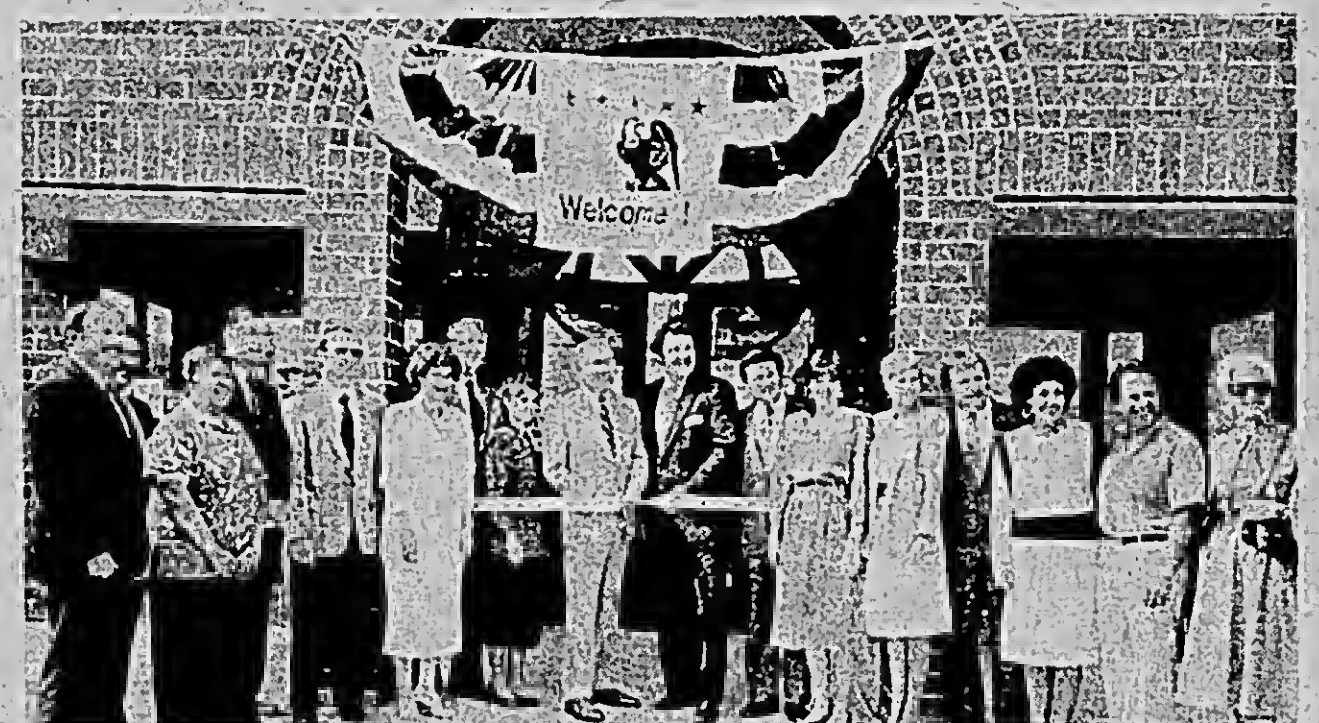

Floor is accused of sexually abusing two female children on numerous occasions over a two-year period.

"On June 21 the Child Advocacy investigative team and sheriff's investigators, accompanied by Chicago Area Six Youth Div. officers arrested Floor at his place of employment in Chicago after an eight-count felony warrant had been obtained.

After being advised of his rights under the Miranda Rule, Floor gave a full confession to the investigators and was transported back to the Lake County Jail, where he was being held on a $100,000 bond.

"It was good, hard police work on the part of the Lake County Child Advocacy Investigative Team and the sheriff's officers. I am proud of them and their accomplishment," Grinnell said.

For years, Floor was the director of a song and dance group that involved teens from the Lake Villa, Antioch. The group appeared on Chicago tv.

Women golfers win prizes

The Antioch Women's Golf League enjoyed their June luncheon at Spring Valley Golf Club.

Del Scarpelli had the least fairway shots with 32, followed by Eleanor Compasso, 36; Shirley Wilton, 40; Helen West, 43 and Mary Hallett, 44.

On the two worst holes, Nancy Zitkus was 18, Kay Costoff, 10, June Hohns, 12, Priory, 11 and Dolore Abderholden, 13.

For low putts, Irene Teresi, 14; Dolly Clark, 15; Henrietta Albergo, 18; Florence Pedersen, Nancy Preston, 16 and Phyllis Bucar, 17. Hallett won a chip in hole 14 prize and Compasso, one for hole 11.

High gross prizes went to Lorraine Blackman, 58; Costoff, 57; Marge Werner, 67; Jean Sherman, 75 and Bucar, 76.

Junior Girls' Div. A winner Flo's Hair Care, managed by John Cox, for the third year in a row met Div. B winner State Bank, managed by Jim Glenn in a championship two-out-of-three game series. 1988 Junior Girls' Champion is State Bank.

In Boys' Little League action, National Div. winner Provincial Custom Builders, managed by Mike Wells, will take on Manager Ray DeMartini's Hadad team, the American Div. winner, in a best-of-three game series. The Lyons & Ryan Team, managed by Doug Lang and First National Bank, managed by Jim O'Connell, will play to determine the championship of the Round Robin Tournament.

The Triple A Div. was decided on June 24, when Div. A winner Plug Campatable, managed by Dennis Dyer, beat Div. B winner Raymond Chevy-Olds, managed by Jack Birren, in two games. The Double A Div. concluded its season with games on June 26, 28 and 30.

News & Notes

It was nice, though, that the weather held for the RV, Auto and Boat Show and the firemen's dance last weekend, even though we need the rain. A lot of work goes into making these events successful, and nice weather sure helps. Now it can rain! Dist. 34 summer school started this week; bet the youngsters wouldn't care if it rained every morning for five weeks now. Only mornings, mind you!

Antioch people also shine outside our town, becoming famous beyond their ken. At the June 25 awards banquet of the Waukegan Community Players, Joe Hunley took home the lion's share of the awards, winning recognition as Most Valuable Player, Mr. Congeniality and the trophy for People's Choice for best actor for his role as the irascible same show. Nice job! Contratulations!

As this season draws to a close, Executive Vice-president of Antioch Youth Baseball Doug Lang says, "If it weren't for the support of the team sponsors, we would not be able to have the fine program here in Antioch. Please patronize our sponsors and thank them for their support!"

Antioch Youth Baseball is looking for officers to sit on the executive board for 1989. Anyone who is interested may contact Roger Giza, (312)395-7976 or Doug Lang at (312)395-2908 before Aug. 1.

The Antioch Chapter of Women's Aglow Fellowship, Int'l. will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 5, at the State Bank of Antioch, 440 Lake St. Special speaker will be Beverly Rudesill of Prospect

Wedding

Pawlowski-Thode

Sharon Ann Pawlowski, daughter of Jim and Marge Norwood of Antioch and Scott H. Thode, son of Frank and Esther Thode of Lake Villa exchanged wedding vows on May 21.

The double ring ceremony took place at St. Peter's Church in Antioch with Father L. F. Hanley officiating. The bride was given away by Lawrence Pawlowski and Jim Norwood.

Nanci Geweki and Cathy Ostrowski served as matrons of honor. Bridesmaids included Michelle Morris, Lois Seiber, and Denise Unrein. Megan Ostrowski was the flower girl.

Best man was Steve Thode with groomsmen Marty Geweki, John Seiber, Kelly O'Kane, and Roger Coleman. Serving as ushers were Al Ostrowski and John Williams. The ring bearer was Ryan Ostrowski.

A reception for the couple was held at Andres Steak House in Richmond. A honeymoon to Ixtapa, Mexico was planned.

The bride attended Waukegan School of Cosmetology and the College of Lake County. She is currently employed at Kemper Insurance Co. in Long Grove.

The groom attended the College of Lake County and Elgin Community College studying electronics and hydraulics. He is currently employed at Boys Machines in Berwyn.

The newly wed couple plan to make their home in Antioch.

Luta leaves post office, not Chamber presidency

Stanley Luta, has been transferred from duties as Antioch's postmaster to that of superintendent of the Wauconda Post Office.

Meanwhile, an interim officer in charge, Anthony Pozzi, is stationed at the Antioch Post Office until a permanent post master can be appointed.

Pozzi is out of the North Suburban Division office.

Luta, who still lives in Antioch, said that he will remain in the office of the president of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

"It's a lovely town," he said, adding that he lives in Antioch and wants to remain active in the Chamber.

She is also the ICO Yearbook editor and served an externship at Great Lakes Naval Base.

Historical society has summer display

The "Antioch -- Past and Present" display running through the end of June at the Lakes Region Historical Museum in Antioch, will be replaced by an exhibit featuring the resorts and summer life of the area and the Lotus Beds.

At a meeting of the Lakes Region Historical Society, Ralph Teich reminisced about his life in Antioch. His memories sparked discussion and other memories of those present.

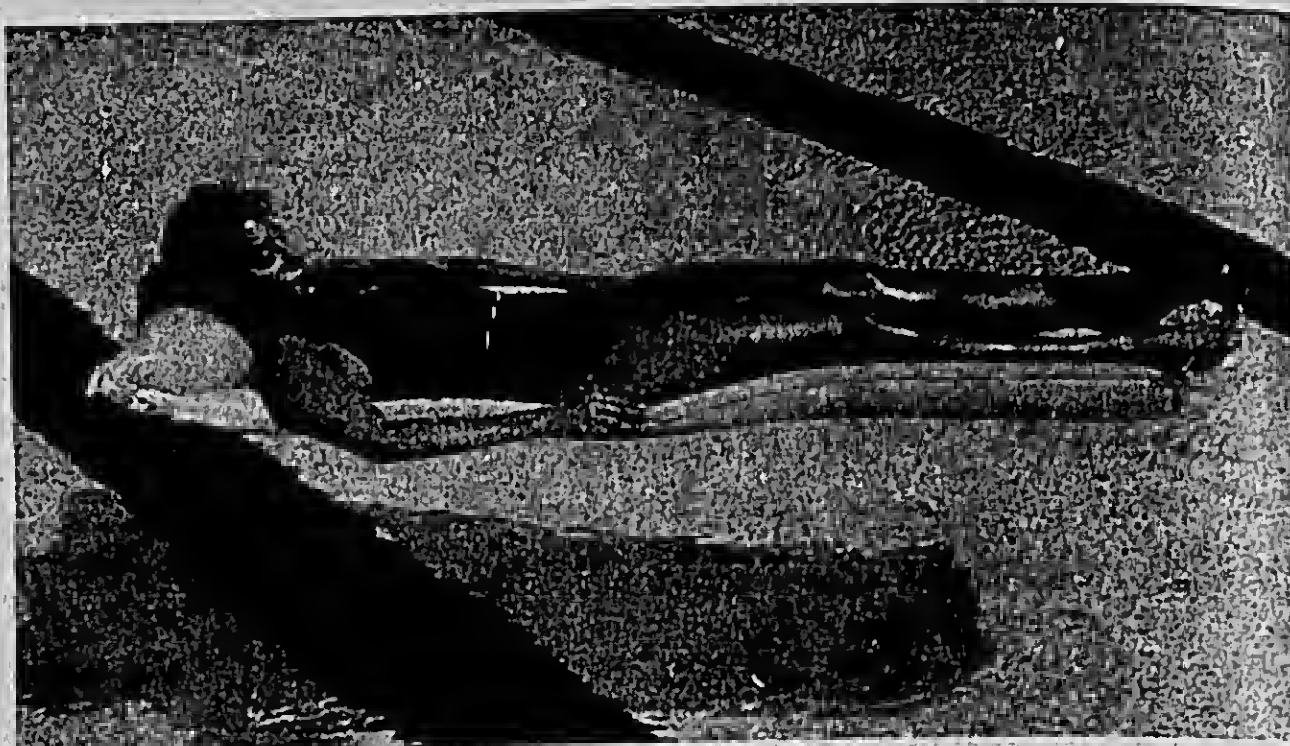

The society voted to hold an open house in July as has been held in the past. The museum will be open both Sunday, July 3 and Monday, July 4, with the open house on Sunday to coincide with the village's parade. The hours will be from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. with the parade going on at 1 p.m.

The society needs volunteers to bake cookies for July 3 and it also needs people willing to work on that day. Anyone who can bake or work for a couple of hours that day can call (414)857-7176 or (312)395-7337 on Saturday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Should anyone want a copy of the society's dedication books, it can be mailed for $4 apiece, postpaid.

The museum also needs souvenirs of Antioch and the Lakes Region and it is especially looking for things pertaining to the Lotus Beds, perfume bottles in particular. Items relating to the Antioch Fire Dept. and also old toys are needed.

Kraut fest to start on July 8

One of southeastern Wisconsin's oldest festivals continues on July 8, 9, and 10, when the village of Franksville celebrates its 38th Annual Kraut Festival.

Some of the highlights of the festival this year are the Queen contest on Friday night, July 8, and the World's Men's and Women's Championship Sauerkraut Eating Contest, held at 2 p.m. on Sunday, July 10.

Contestants have challenged from as far away as Minnesota and even Germany to break the men's world's record held by a local Calcedonia man, Maynard Entinger.

Lisa Harrison, a local Sturtevant gal, is the current World's Women's Kraut Eating Champion.

Main stage and beer garden entertainment is provided each day of this three day festival which is sponsored by the Franksville Businessmen's Assn., with all proceeds being returned to non-profit community groups.

WARTS AREN'T CORNS

Warts on the soles or heels often are mistaken for corns or calluses.

Called plantar warts, these generally are flat, usually grown inward, can be very painful and may spread if treatment is neglected.

The warts develop because of a virus infection that is often associated with foot dampness-around swimming pools, for instance.

Don't expect plantar warts to subside as easily as they develop. On average, they persist about two or three years but some have been known to last longer.

Podiatrists choose from a variety of treatments to remove the warts, depending on their type and the number present.

See your podiatrist promptly. The longer warts are neglected, the more stubborn they become.

24 HOUR ANSWERING SERVICE

When was the last time you had a complete physical?

Osteopathic exam special: $69

A thorough physical examination by a doctor of osteopathy (DO) can detect medical problems which you may not be aware of.

Osteopathic medicine involves the study of all the body's systems--circulatory, respiratory, nervous and musculoskeletal.

A problem with one system may cause problems with the others.

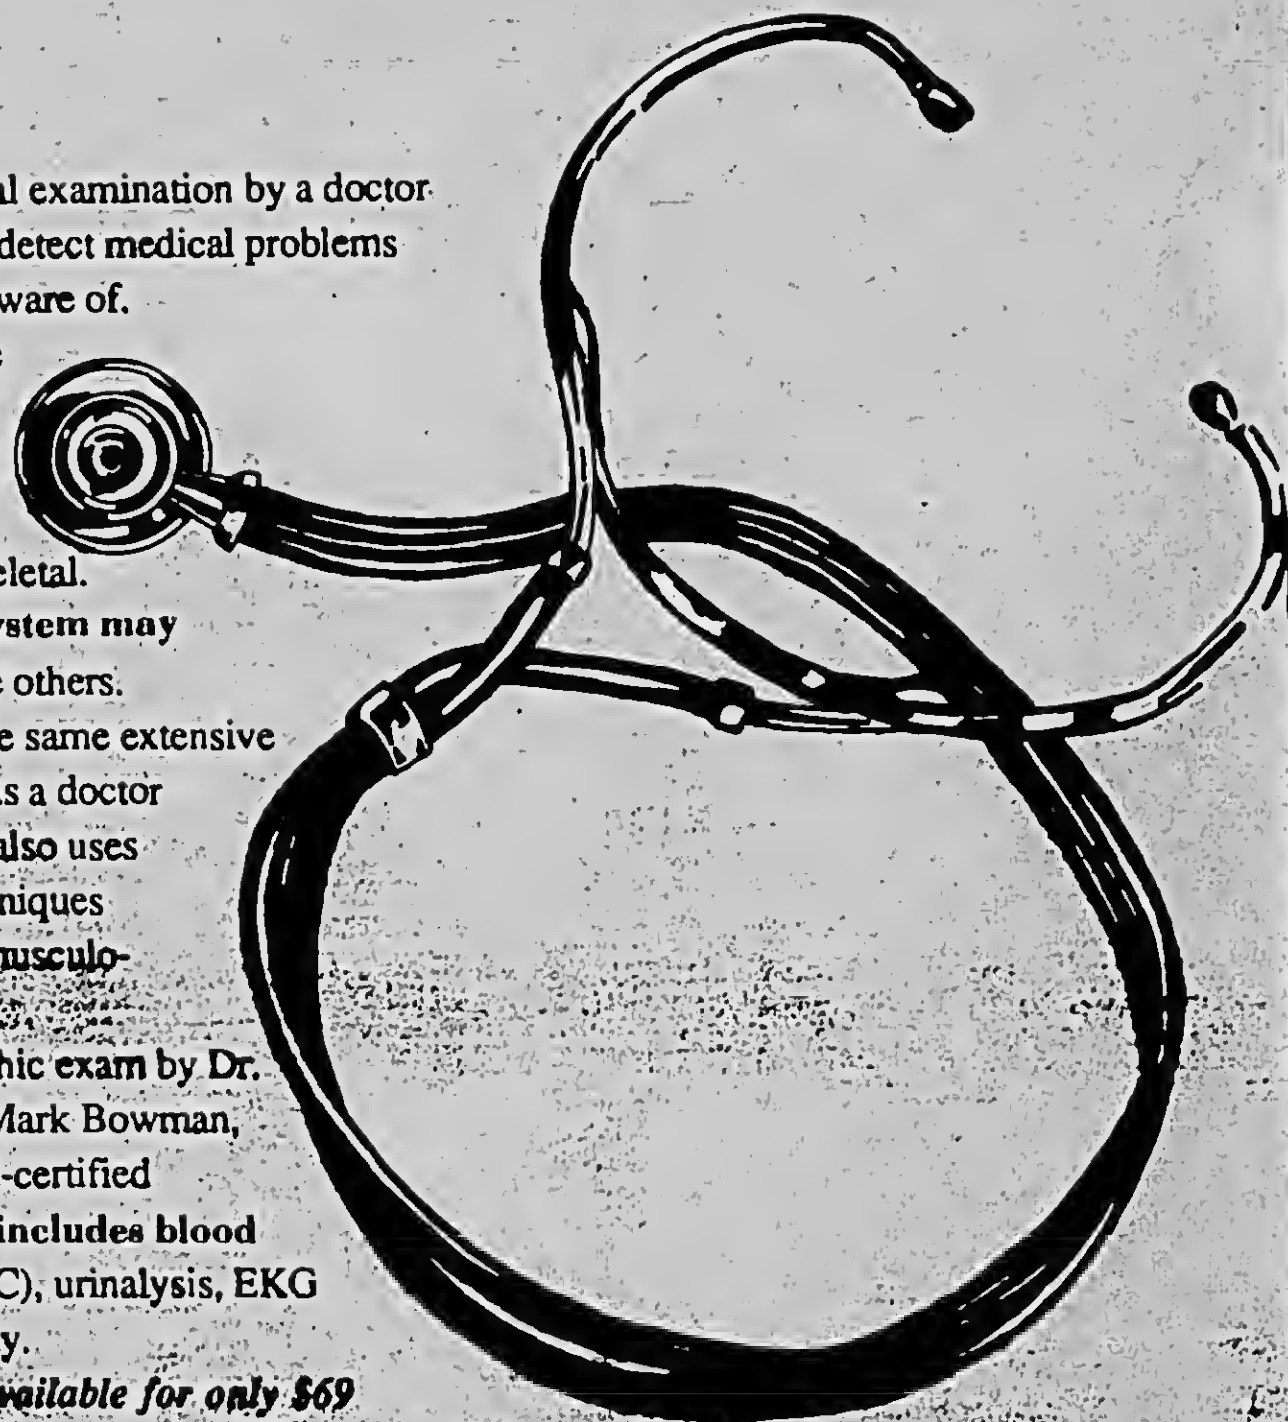

The DO possesses the same extensive education and training as a doctor of medicine (MD), but also uses body manipulation techniques to examine the body's musculoskeletal system.

A complete osteopathic exam by Dr. Chris Bowman or Dr. Mark Bowman, brothers who are Board-certified family practitioners, includes blood tests (SMA-24 and CBC), urinalysis, EKG and optional chest X-ray.

The exam is now available for only $69
(a $200 value). Offer good for initial visit only. Please call one of the numbers below to schedule an appointment.

Lindenfest hunts for top teen-ager

As part of this year's Lindenfest there will be a new Teen Recognition Day. It will be the third day of the five-day fun festival, which begins Wednesday, Aug. 17, and continues through Sunday, Aug. 24. All events will be on the parking lot and grounds adjoining the village hall.

Teen Recognition Day will include the first-time recognition of Lindenhurst's outstanding teen-ager. The honoree will receive a $100 cash award and engraved plaque.

Nominations are now being accepted. The boy or girl nominated must be between the age of 13 and 19 and be a resident of Lindenhurst. They can be nominated for community or church involvement; academic excellence; athletic ability or other traits. These should be listed in a letter and mailed by the deadline to Lindenfest Chairman

James Betustak, Lindenhurst Village Hall, 2301 E. Sand Lake Rd., Lindenhurst 60046. Deadline for nominations is Friday, Aug. 5.

Teen Recognition Day will include a live broadcast from the village hall parking lot by radio station WXLG.

At 7 p.m. there will be a Gong Show featuring local talent. The winner will receive a $50 cash prize. At 8 p.m. will be a teen dance with music by a disc jockey. A dance contest at 9 p.m. will have a $50 cash prize for the winner.

Announcement of Lindenhurst's top teen will come at 10 p.m.

Closing the evening at 11 p.m. will be the award of a pizza party for 10 at R.J.'s Eatery in Lindenhurst. The winner must be present.

Top 10 Sunday series begins this weekend

For the second year, Chain-of-Lakes Community Bible Church will hold a series of weekly meetings called Ten Outstanding Summer Sunday Nights. The three-year-old church has its offices in Lake Villa, but holds services in a temporary home in the Antioch Veterans of Foreign Wars post home on North Ave.

This year's weekly guests include nationally-known gospel singer Robie Hinger; a christian mime team; Dr. Joseph Stowell, the new president of the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago; Ian Leitch, an evangelist from Scotland; Deltha Jefferson, a black gospel singer from Cleveland, Ohio; Dr. Erwin Lutzer, pastor of Chicago's Moody Church, and others.

Opening the series on July 3 will be a patriotic and inspirational film called "Portrait of an American Hero." It is about the life of Marine Lt. Clebe McClary and his life-changing experience in Viet Nam.

Also sharing the program will be the Rev. Charles Sweetman, another Vietnam veteran, who served with the long-range reconnaissance patrol.

Mother Nature ends ball play

What opponents could not do, Mother Nature did for baseball and softball teams in Lake Villa Twp. They have been knocked out of the box until the current drought ends.

As of June 29 teams that use the two fields at the township park, Grand Ave. and Fairfield Rd., on week nights and weekends are banned from further play. More rain like the one inch that fell in mid-week might improve conditions sufficiently so the fields can reopen soon.

"Right now the grass on the outfield and around the park is down to a brown stubble."

Park Foreman Robert Karczewski said. "It is easily damaged. We have to protect what little turf there is and that is by closing the two ball fields."

Karczewski said there were plans to drill a well this spring for an irrigation pump.

Liberty Lakes denied in Court

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Liberty Lakes, the new village proposed for the unincorporated area of Lake Villa and Antioch Twps., has been told it must do two things if it wishes to pursue annexation to Lake Villa.

First, it must be free of all legal action. That came this week when the U.S. Supreme Court refused to hear an appeal about previous denials by the Lake County Board and state Supreme Court for a vote on incorporation. The case was taken to the nation's highest court when the state court refused to hear it.

Lake Villa became a party to the legal action following an overture in April to annex to the village. The request came as a complete surprise to Lake Villa officials after Liberty Lakes was rebuffed in a similar attempt by Round Lake Beach.

Second, the village board wants a promised survey of residents about joining Lake Villa promised by incorporation promoters. When representatives of Liberty Lakes appeared before the Lake Villa board they said a door-to-door survey would show interest and intent in being annexed by Lake Villa.

Residents have been trying since 1986 to incorporate the area as Liberty Lakes. The area involved borders both Lake Villa and Lindenhurst. The Lake County Planning and Zoning Committee previously questioned of the proposed village could meet the county's master zoning plan and has sufficient tax base.

Liberty Lakes is a large U-shaped area encompassing about 24 square miles with about 11,000 residents. Legal expenses for the group are being paid by private contributions, garage and rummage sales and fund raisers.

Sewer and water service are two of the reasons for the desire to incorporate. Additional police and fire protection are also mentioned. Lake Villa currently can supply none of these services without incurring huge expenses.

Big show unfolding here

Ladies and gentlemen! In the center ring: George Bush and Michael Dukakis.

The battle between the two Presidential hopefuls resembles a three-ring circus, but it's hardly the only political show in town. Closer to home—right under our noses, in fact—another political drama is beginning to take form—the spring, 1989, mayoral elections. While the balloting is more than nine months away, the maneuvering is going on right now. Trial balloons are being floated, slates are being formed and deals are being struck. That's how elections are won. And it's no different for village hall than the White House.

The only difference, perhaps, is that the Bush-Dukakis show will be played out on the front pages of the dailies and the 10 o'clock news. For all the happenings in the mayoral sweepstakes, stay tuned to your hometown newspaper. That's our job. Frankly, we like it that way.

Take League report to heart

After a two year study, the League of Women Voters of Lake County has both some good things and some not so good things to say about the county's Forest Preserve Dist. The League's findings are worth considering.

First the good news:

The primary purposes of the district should be conservation and preservation followed by flood control, restoration, passive recreation and education, in that order of priority. Due to the rapid development of the county, the League believes it is essential that the district acquire additional property to fulfill the above stated functions. The board should vote to issue the bonds for this purpose rather than placing either a binding or advisory referendum on the ballot. A long range comprehensive plan, to include land acquisition, maintenance, development and financing should be developed. This plan should cover at least a 10 year span with review of all aspects at least every five years.

So far so good. Up to this point, it appears as though the voters organization is in full accord on the district's purchase of Picket Fence Farm.

Now the not so good news:

The highly respected women's political organization believes that there should be a greater degree of public input into district considerations. Hold well publicized hearings on development and review long range plans with an advisory group, the League recommends. As a matter of fact, the board deliberated on the Picket Fence Farm purchase in virtual secrecy. Most of the commissioners had a week or less notice of the huge land acquisition. Veteran commissioner Norman Geary explained the board's plans had to be kept confidential so the village of Grayslake wouldn't push through a helter skelter annexation to kill county acquisition. Secrecy seems contrary to the League advisory. We find the way forest preserve commission leadership handled Picket Fence Farm downright smelly.

The League also is advocating an increase in the district's corporate fund levy, pointing out that the district has been operating with the same size staff for 15 years even though land holdings have increased more than 20 percent in that time. Rather than alluding to overwork, the district should be commended for efficiency.

All in all, the League's viewpoints are worth heeding. We're taking them to heart, including the recommendation that media coverage of forest preserve proceedings should be improved.

Notice change defeated

Members of the Illinois House of Representatives wisely defeated by a wide margin HB1911 which would have provided for optional publication of quadrennial assessments by counties. Every four years every piece of real estate in Illinois is reassessed. Publication of the assessments, required by statute gives the public an easy way of comparing the valuation of their property with other parcels.

The practical effect of the bill probably would have been elimination of the assessments publication, one of the most popular and widely read public notices. All members of the Lake County representative delegation with the exception of State Rep. Grace Mary Stern voted no on the question of optional publication.

Elimination of the quadrennial notice would have placed the burden of generating comparative property values directly on the office of the supervisor of assessments.

Letters Invited

Letters to the editor are welcome. They should be on topics of general interest, approximately 250 words or less. All letters must be signed, and contain home address and telephone numbers. The editor reserves the right to condense all letters.

Viewpoint

Worthwhile time of life--2 years of duty in Army

by BILLSCHROEDER

A bunch of guys pushing 60. That's what we are now.

Thirty-six years ago we were a mixed race, multi-talented, cross-section of America thrust together by chance to serve our country when young men didn't have a choice. We were tapped. We went. We did our jobs, a few grudgingly, but generally the GI's did their best once they settled down and became accustomed to the regimentation of Army life.

Pretty soon we learned to enjoy ourselves. It was more than making the best of a bad thing. When nobody's shooting at you, military life isn't hard to take. This group of lucky guys serving together during the Korean War at an Army hospital in Texas soon realized they were experiencing a phase of their life that would become but a snapshot in time, a brief period to make friendships no other encounter would afford, a few ticks of the clock that will never be forgotten, faces and places to be remembered with warmth and fondness.

Why am I thinking about Army days so long ago? Maybe it's because I've got a patriotic streak. July 4th weekend is at hand. I'm a sucker for guys in uniform. Maybe it's because there is a growing feeling in our nation that compulsory military duty or public service would be a good thing. More and more people who care about the future of America believe something in our nation has been missing without the draft. I'm a better citizen because of military service. I bet every one of those guys who were together in Texas feel the same way.

For one thing, we got a look at America that young people don't see today. Our look was into the faces--and hearts--of guys from all parts of the country made possible by living together in a barracks. I can still see the faces and hear the voices in t169, and I'm not talking about a hotel suite. That was a two-story wooden barracks with a three-stool latrine area and one shower room.

Dick Kraft would have been a lineman for the Rams if he hadn't been drafted. Dick was an usher at my wedding. We're still close friends today even though 1,000 miles separate us. Dick Stover wanted to be a doctor. I hope he made it. Bob Poag was a typical New Yorker. He insisted anyone living west of the Hudson was an Indian or a hayseed. Bob thought so much of his hayseed buddies that some of us were on hand when he married an Army nurse. There was Jimmy Fernandez and Joe Kalamankarian. More New Yorkers. We never held it against them. Red Halliwell longed to go home for a job in a car factory so he could be near his beloved Detroit Lions. Willie Smith talked about classical music and good books because no one else talked about organic chemistry. Sgt. Mike Garcia was a heckuva softball pitcher and about the best crafter of artificial limbs the Army had. He gave respectability to a lot of less fortunate guys coming back from Korea. Earl Spangler wanted to be a priest. I hope he made it. Larry Berg wanted to be a big-time radio announcer. I'm sure he made the networks as Larry Monore in civilian life. Stu Gootnick and Louis Salvas good naturedly took the jokes hurled at them. Ivy Leaguer Tom Tenny wanted to become a doctor, too. The Army gave him a start--as a lab tech. Vic Nazralla had his heart set on becoming an eye doctor. I know he made it because I saw his office during a vacation stop over in Florida.

Blacks, whites. Big city guys. Small town guys. Jews, Hispanics, Arabs, whatever. University grads, high school dropouts. In the Army, you're all in the same boat and you're rowing together. The only prejudices I ever heard were hurled at the Airdales (Air Force men) and Jar Heads (Marines) stationed nearby. And that was only inter-service rivalry.

Looking back, I don't begrudge those two years. I learned something. I have memories that I treasure. I got more out of those two years than I gave. Honest. I'll bet those soon-to-be senior citizens who learned how to be on their own in Texas years ago would agree.

Maybe the advocates for compulsory military service or public service have something. It's worth taking a look.

PET PEEVE--How long will it take for the current fad of personal telephone answering devices complete with cute responses to run its course? Here's a guy who's sick and tired of dialects, animal sounds, jungle grunts, mystery games and out and out gibberish people put on their answering devices to masquerade as a personal response in place of a live answer.

I'd much rather get no answer at all rather than someone's hometown version of stand-up comedy. I can deal with the plumber or the carpet cleaner employing modern electronics to extend service to the public. Not Joe Schmo. Grow up people. Leave the audio antics for a bar or a locker room.

PUBLIC NUISANCES--Fox Lake paramedics are ticked off about two incidents involving gross misconduct on the part of the public. We don't blame them. One medic had his sunglasses swiped by a bystander while aiding an 11-year-old drowning victim. He was giving the child CPR when he spotted a hand reach down and scoop up the glasses which had fallen out of his pocket. During a rescue call to Rte. 173 and Wilmot Rd., a man approached an injured person, identified himself as a paramedic and told the victim to slip off his wristwatch "to take his pulse". Then the passerby jumped in his car and sped away--with the injured person's watch.

Recycling points way to disposal answers

by RALPH ROHLING

Joe Garbarino of the Marin County Resource Recovery Center, Calif., recognizes that 100% landfilling won't work in getting rid of our garbage, that incineration is a shortsighted quick-fix and that the only right solution is "source separation and a massive commitment to recycling."

Garbarino operates a huge curbside recycling program and has invested $10 million into a gigantic separating facility. He is aiming for 50-75% waste reduction by recycling.

The Mundelein Village Board supports Joe's commitment to recycling and encourages our own residents to make recycling a priority in their households.

Conservation of natural resources and energy has been reason enough for many people to recycle over the years, but solid waste disposal has become a universal problem all over the country, and we all need to take a new look at how we can reduce the amount of waste going to our landfills.

In order to promote recycling, Mundelein has set up a drop-off recycling center at the southeast corner of the Eagle shopping center parking lot on Seymour St.

Three separate truck boxes are available for residents to drop off glass jars and bottles, newspaper and other paper, and aluminum and tin cans. The Village has entered into an agreement with Obenauf Disposal Service to operate the drop-off center. This is a small operation in comparison to Joe's huge facility, but it is a start in the right direction. Mundelein also plans a curbside recycling program in a pilot area in the future.

Even more important Mundelein is a member of The Lake County Joint Action Solid Waste Planning Agency (SWPA). Although Lake County has no serious immediate need for more landfill space, 28 Lake County communities as well as the County of Lake formed the SWPA, and with the help of a state grant, has been studying waste disposal management in our county for many months.

The management plan is likely to include recycling and composting (possibly mandatory) as well as the siting of new landfill space. Even incineration is being considered, but if local citizens with Joe Garbarino mentalities can show that sufficient waste reduction can be accomplished through recycling, incineration, with its related problems of air pollution and toxic ash, can, and should be, avoided.

SWPA's process of thorough study is the only sensible approach to the solution of our disposal problems. However, Waste Management, Inc., an international, multi-billion dollar firm, is attempting to add to our problems by importing additional garbage.

If Mundelein (and Lake County) is to avoid becoming the garbage dump of northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin, we've got to educate ourselves and become aware of what Waste Management proposes for our future. Land has already been purchased by Waste Management at the corner of Peterson Rd. and Hwy. 83.

Waste Management's petition to site a sanitary landfill and build an incinerator on that same site was denied by the Lake County Board and the Illinois Pollution Control Board last year, on grounds that the firm did not meet four criteria of Illinois Public Law 82-682 for the siting of landfills and incinerators. These criteria dealt with the necessity for the facility; protection of public health, safety, and welfare; effect on property values, and impact on traffic flow. The company is appealing this decision in court.

Waste Management has submitted another petition for just a landfill on the same site. The firm is spending well over a million dollars in land purchase, hearing fees and court costs to ensure a win in one case or the other. You can rest assured they expect a good return for their money. Public hearings on the latter petition begin before the Lake County Board August 15. If you are concerned about what is happening in your area, watch the newspaper and become informed about what you can do to oppose this imposition on our lives.

To further encourage local citizens and community organizations to support recycling, the Village of Mundelein is offering a very informative yet humorous and entertaining 30-minute video tape (VHS) of an interview with Joe Garbarino. Entitled "Joe Garbarino and the Marin Resource Recovery Plant—The Only Way to Go," the tape can be reserved, free of charge, by calling the Mundelein Village Hall, 949-3225. Check out the video tape and see for yourself, then do your bit—separate the recyclables in your home and take them to the drop-off center.

Recycling is "the only way to go!"

(Editor's note: Ralph K. Rohling is a trustee of the village of Mundelein.)

Politically speaking . . .

by Joseph Soulak

Virginia Krueger of Mundelein likes to do things the hard way. She is trying to campaign for Dist. 6 representative on the County Board while getting around on crutches and a wheelchair.

She slipped off a ladder in her backyard five weeks ago. "Don't worry," vowed the Democrat. "I'll find a way. I'm out there as much as possible and will be the closer it gets to the election."

Mayor Paul Neal doesn't have any intention of resigning or retiring as mayor of Libertyville. But newly-elected village Trustee Grant Keehn thinks otherwise. He would like to be the next mayor.

Elected for the first time last year, the 33-year-old calls himself the "new kid on the block, but the old boy in town," because he has lifelong residency in the community.

An open-space advocate favoring slow, controlled growth, Keehn feels his candidacy will give voters a choice next April. "Or will it be business as usual after that time?" he asks.

It was virtually a non-stop household for Warren Twp. Supervisor Robert Depke and his wife, GeorgeAnne, when their daughter, Cindy, and husband, Pat, Deming made a Father's Day visit. They brought along nine-month-old quadruplets Kevin, Shawn, Scott and Amy.

Grandchildren and parents spent four days here before returning to Kansas City, Mo., where dad is a negotiator for the postal worker's union and mom is a nurse turned full-time mother.

"The four kept us going around the clock," grandmother Depke said. "We were so happy they could make it." There is something special about baby Amy. Of the Depke's six grandchildren, she is the first girl.

Incidentally, the Deming's don't plan on having any more grandchildren for the Depkes. After six years of being told she could not have children, the former nurse was given a doctor-prescribed fertility drug. She said four at one time is a blessing, but she doesn't want too much of a good thing.

"We, the unwilling, led by the unknowing, are doing the impossible for the ungrateful. We have done so much for so long with so little we are now qualified to do anything with nothing."

Two people in the Lake County Treasurer's Office are celebrating their 30th year on the job. They are Treasurer Jack "Red" Anderson of Gurnee and Mitchell Stanton of Grayslake. Stanton actually has more time on his boss, starting in May 1958

Stanton

Anderson

while Anderson came aboard in Aug. 1958.

Before going to work in the treasurer's office Anderson had five jobs in two years, including construction work, salesman in a Morrie Mages sporting goods store, the Chicago Title and Trust Co. and the Liggett-Meyers Tobacco Co. Once a cigarette smoker, he gave them up following a 1983 heart attack. In his 30 years in the treasurer's office Anderson has done it all from taking care of customers at the counter to answering the telephone and stuffing tax bills.

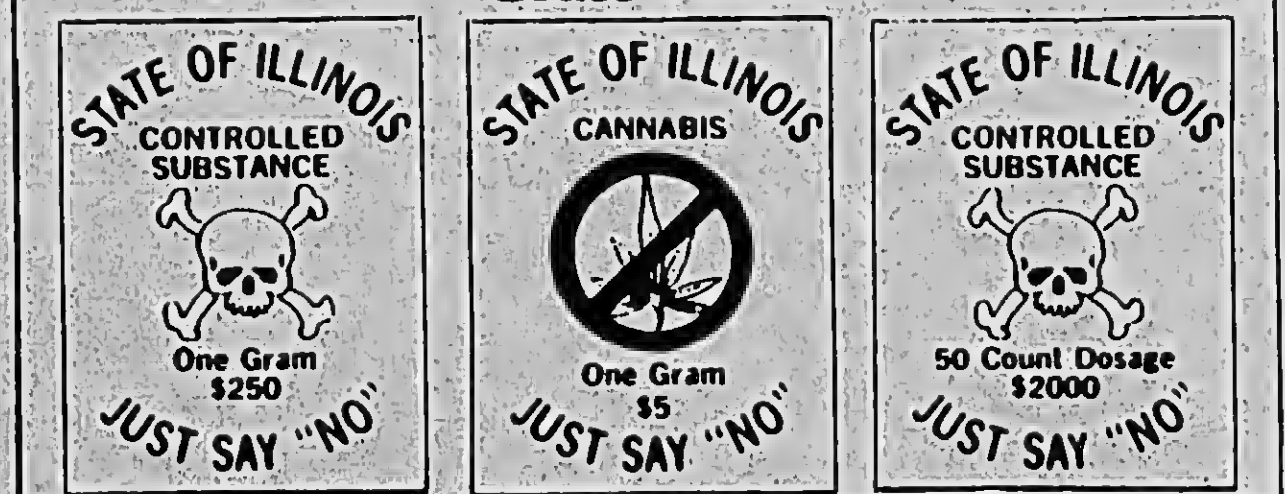

"We're the first ones people deal with after getting their tax bill," Anderson said, "so they often give us an earful." He recalls one man a few years ago was so upset about a $78 personal property tax bill he wanted to pay in pennies. Then Treasurer Robert Skidmore said no. Anderson said yes and started counting. When the man got to the 15th or 20th wrapper he had to sign verifying the roll of pennies, he took them back to the bank returned with crisp bills.

Anderson became treasurer in 1978, succeeding Terrance Tucker. As for his nickname, "Just look at my hair and you'll know why," he said.

Stanton has gone through seven treasurers in doing everything in the office from cashing to running the mail department and serving as full-time deputy. He was even asked to run the office when Skidmore suddenly died, but declined. Tucker was given the one-year interim appointment and subsequently was elected for a full term. Other treasurers with whom he has served are Guy Lunn, Hugo Schneider, Karl Berning and Ray Sheahan. "Anderson has been the best," he said in evaluating all of the bosses he has had.

Both note how things have changed in the office over the years. Instead of hand posting, its computers now. Thirty years ago 80,000 taxpayers paid $34-million. Today there are 190,000 taxpayers and the collection is $480-million annually. Neither Anderson or Stanton are thinking of retiring. They have about 10 years to go before they can even think of qualifying for a pension. Besides that, after 30 years what's another five or 10? Lake County is better served because of them.

Grass Tax ...

New 'grass' tax stamps

A new Illinois law makes it illegal to sell marijuana, cocaine or other controlled substances without a corresponding Illinois Dept. of Revenue stamp attached to the goods. Lack of the stamps, pictured, puts a drug dealer in double jeopardy. He or she faces criminal charges for narcotic trafficking and additional charges for tax evasion. Rates for the tax stamps range from $5 to $2,000. Who's going to be the first to line up and buy one?

CLC officers get raises for new year

At its June meeting, the College of Lake County Board of Trustees approved a new property liability and workers compensation program for 1988-89 at a cost of $393,920. This represents a savings of $113,339 over the 1987-88 program. Given as reasons for the rate reduction were CLC's excellent safety record and low number of claims.

Tentative budget for the 1988-89 fiscal year will be available for public inspection starting Thursday, July 14. Copies are available in the Grayslake campus business office.

The operating budget totals $19,641,399. Because state funding has fallen below the Illinois Board of Higher Education's recommended amount by $821,804, the operating funds of the college educational and building funds are unbalanced to the extent of $758,000.

In personnel action at the June meeting, the board approved the appointment of Michael Corn to the post of associate dean of the Biological & Health Sciences Div. Corn has been a biology instructor at CLC since 1970. He replaces Virginia Thompson, who has resigned to take a position at Sauk Valley Community College in Dixon.

Also approved was the appointment of William Ballock as acting associate dean of the Engineering, Mathematics and Physical Sciences Div. The position was left vacant by the resignation of Carl Painter. Ballock, has been a member of the CLC faculty since 1969.

In other action, the board authorized 1989 salaries for top management staff. Charles Schulze, vice-president for development, was granted a 5.9 percent increase, bringing his salary to $61,952. Arthur Kent, vice-president for administrative affairs, and James Doppke, vice-president for educational affairs, both were granted 5.5 percent salary increases. Kent's salary will be $65,420, and Doppke's at $69,334.

The board also approved a new three-year contract effective July 1 for college President Daniel J. LaVista. His salary for 1989 will be $88,687, a 7.5 percent increase. The board also approved the usual fringe benefit package afforded to all administrators as well as family health coverage for LaVista.

In commenting for the board of trustees on the new contract, board chairman Richard Bryan said, "The board could not be more positive with its assessment of Dr. LaVista's performance this past year. Moreover, the board fully endorses the priorities set by Dr. LaVista as the college enters its 20th year in 1988-89."

The board honored departing dental assistant instructor Sue Wunderlich with a resolution saluting her 19 years of service and dedication to the college. Wunderlich is leaving to start a private business venture. Doppke, vice-president for educational affairs, stated: "She has contributed so much, not just in teaching but also in working with the college governance system."

Russell Peterson, dean of curriculum and instruction, reported on curriculum reform statewide and at CLC. Speaking on how the changes of the 1980s are leading to challenges and growth in the field of education, Peterson reported that studies now indicate that educational success is tied to setting high expectations, involving students in the educational process and maintaining fully integrated assessment programs. Currently, consideration is being given to how strict state-mandated admission requirements will impact on CLC admissions when they are implemented in 1993.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Bi-State

Al Cormaney has been promoted to manager of the Gander Mountain Wilmet retail store, according to James Stewart, vice president and general manager. In his new position, Cormaney is responsible for all general operations of the retail store, including merchandising, advertising, customer service, and staff supervision. He joined Gander Mountain in 1985 and has held various positions in the company's shipping and retail areas, just previously as assistant manager of the store. Prior to joining Gander, he was employed by Miller Technology and Communication as a district sales representative responsible for a seven-state area. Cormaney has a bachelor's degree in business and earned a master's degree in administration at Missouri State University. He and his wife, Judy, and their two children reside in Antioch.

Fox Lake

Sandy McKie, owner of Sandy McKie and Sons, Inc., of Fox Lake, is among six new car dealers who were elected at the 84th annual meeting to serve on the board of directors of the Chicago Automobile Trade Assn. (CATA). Over 700 new car dealers and associate members in the eight-county Chicagoland area are members of the CATA which also sponsors the "World's Greatest" Chicago Auto Show. McKie has been elected to serve a three-year term, as have the following: Ron Colosimo, Oak Lawn Dodge-Toyota, Oak Lawn; Steven Foley, Cadillac-Rolls Royce, Northbrook; Gerald Haggerty, Haggerty Pontiac, Inc., Villa Park; Jack Haggerty, Jack Haggerty Oldsmobile, Inc., Chicago; and Richard Roto, Roto Lincoln-Mercury, Inc., Arlington Heights.

Barrington

The Royal Australian Air Force (RAAF) has recognized Recon/Optical, Inc., for support of Australia's tactical reconnaissance programs. At a ceremony at the company's headquarters in Barrington, Squadron Leader Graham Walton, on behalf of Air Marshal Ray Funnell, chief of the RAAF air staff, presented a plaque to Larry G. Larson, president and chief executive officer of Recon/Optical, expressing appreciation for the excellent support that the company has provided. In 1978, Recon/Optical's CAI Division supplied KS-87 and KA-93 high performance tactical reconnaissance cameras for use in Australia's RF-111C and other tactical aircraft. Working closely with the RAAF in the past year, CAI provided an upgrade program that significantly enhanced the capabilities of Australia's tactical reconnaissance force. In addition, CAI has provided classroom, on-the-job training, and logistics support over many years to the tactical reconnaissance group at places such as the RAAF base at Amberly, Australia.

Libertyville

The 8th annual Libertyville Farmers Market is running now through Oct. 20, every Thursday from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. around Cook Park. The Farmers Market will offer a variety of fresh fruit from Michigan, fresh vegetables from Illinois and Wisconsin. Also, there will be mushrooms, plants, cut flowers, herbs, and fresh beef raised locally. The Libertyville Farmers Market is sponsored by the Heritage Area Business and Property Owners Assn. The market manager is Larry Snell.

Lakes Bowl plans 20th birthday gala

by BILL DOTSON

August 27 will be a big day for Lakes Bowl in Round Lake. That date has been selected by the Piagentini family to celebrate the 20th anniversary of their ownership of the recreational center at 601 Railroad Ave.

To commemorate the occasion, professional bowler Mark Roth will be on hand that day to bowl three exhibition games with the final winner of the Pot of Gold singles tournament, open only to members of a league at Lakes Bowl. Lakes is donating $3,500 to the prize pot, with a guaranteed first prize of $1,000.

"This is one way of saying thanks to our steady customers and telling them we appreciate their loyalty," said Joe Piagentini, who manages the business with his father, Louis. The operation is essentially a family affair since Joe's mother Betty and sister Pam help with the bookkeeping duties.

Lakes has come a long way in the two decades since Louis and Betty Piagentini bought the business on April 1, 1968. Prior to that, according to Joe, his parents were in the restaurant business in Volo. They sold out there and then went to McHenry Recreational Center for three years before buying Lakes.

At that time, Lakes Bowl was a small 12-lane center. "In 1977, we expanded to 24 lanes," Joe explained as he pointed out that portions of the original 12 lanes can be found in the form of countertops and table surfaces throughout the building.

Other features that have grown through the years include a pro-shop, a custom silkscreening business, and a banquet hall, The Tiffany Room, which seats up to 250 people.

"Dad and myself do the silk screening and we've run the pro shop for 20 years," Joe said.

A newly added feature that the Piagentinis are quite proud of is automatic scoring. Over each lane is a large monitor screen that shows the names and scores of each bowler.

"All they have to do is punch in their names," Joe said. "It makes bowling more of a social event by removing the hassle of having to keep score."

The system can do more than can keep score. Joe said the monitor can function as a television as well. "If you want to keep track of the Cubs game while you're bowling, you can use the smaller screen on the table for scorekeeping."

"Also, if someone comes to us and says they're having a problem with their bowling, the monitors can make a videotape of them bowling and we can show them what they might be doing wrong," he added.

Asked if there are any special plans for the future of Lakes Bowl, Joe replied, "We're just going to keep on doing what we're doing now. The banquets, silkscreening, tournaments, and so on—that's more than enough to keep everybody busy."

Whalen to talk to Women In Management

The Lake Suburban Chapter of Women in Management will hold its monthly luncheon meeting Wednesday, July 20, at the Landings of Libertyville,

New director

CAI Division of Recon/Optical, Inc., Barrington, has appointed Robert R. Clifford, as director of manufacturing. In this position, Clifford is responsible for manufacturing, engineering, and production, including fabrication, assembly, and testing for CAI, world's leading manufacturer of aerial tactical reconnaissance systems.

1290 South Milwaukee Ave.

The guest speaker, Kathleen Whalen Fitzgerald, Ph.D., will discuss women and alcoholism, addressing the effect on the family, strategies for intervention, and the character of rehabilitation and recovery. Dr. Fitzgerald is the author of a book entitled "Alcoholism, the Genetic Inheritance", which focuses on alcoholism as a bona fide disease. Author of two other books, Fitzgerald has appeared on both national and local television and radio talk shows.

Women In Management, Inc., is a support organization for professional women and women in management, founded to facilitate the exchange of experiences and ideas and to promote self-growth in management. Networking will begin at 11:30 a.m., with the luncheon program beginning at noon. Cost is $10 for members and $15 for non-members. Further information can be obtained by calling (312)367-9097.

Ameritech chairman speaks at Urban League luncheon

The Lake County Urban League held its 11th annual equal opportunity luncheon in the Port of Call at Great Lakes Naval Training Center.

The featured speaker was Roger Plummer, chairman and chief executive officer, Ameritech Communications, Inc., which is responsible for providing marketing support and state of the art equipment and communications systems to the Ameritech Bell Companies' Sales subsidiaries.

Plummer began his career with Illinois Bell in 1964. Following a number of assignments in engineering and operations, he transferred to AT & T. Plummer returned to Illinois Bell in 1971 and advanced, following a series of promotions, to vice president of operations and director in 1985. He held those positions until he was promoted to his current position at Ameritech Communications in 1987.

An Illinois native, Plummer earned a bachelor's degree in engineering at the University of Illinois in 1964. He is involved in numerous civic and community organizations including the board of junior achievement of Chicago, The Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry, The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign Business Advisory Council.

Plummer, 46, is a member of the economic club of Chicago, The River Club and the University Club. Plummer was included in the February 1988 issue of Black Enterprise Magazine's list of the 25 "Most Powerful" black executives in the United States.

Other features of the luncheon were the awarding of recognition to employers who have demonstrated outstanding leadership in equal opportunity during the past program year. The outstanding minority businesses of the year were recognized.

Kane becomes manager

John F. Kane has been promoted to manager of safety and environmental health in the chemical and agricultural products division at Abbott Laboratories. Previously, Kane was a development engineer.

Almost home

Pauline and Bob Ladika with son Blake, 3, have picnic on one-acre lot where their new home will be built at Stone Ridge in McHenry County. Ladika's 4,000 square foot Colonial home, scheduled for September completion, will have four bedrooms, and family room with fireplace and wet bar. More than half of 37 lots in Stone Ridge have been sold, according to Joseph Mulrooney, vice president for real estate at Material Service Corporation, project developer.

Westgate proving popular

For "move-up" buyers looking to expand their family and move into a larger home, Westfield Homes' Westgate in Gurnee appears to be a popular choice, according to Bob Suida, vice-president of sales and marketing for Westfield Homes.

"We just opened Phase II of these single-family homes and sold eight in less than two weeks," said Suida. "Of the 171 single-family homes on the project, we have sold 73."

"We are getting a diverse group of home buyers. About 65 percent are move-up buyers, moving into the 4 bedroom, 2 1/2 bath homes. Approximately 20 to 25 percent of the home buyers are first-time buyers and about 10 percent are relocating into the business corridors," Suida said.

"Many of these home buyers are planning for the future," he added. "They have one or two children and are planning to have more. The Westgate community is an ideal place for young families to buy a larger home for the future."

Six different home plans are available to home buyers. The Heritage, a colonial two-story home with three bedrooms, is priced from $107,900. The Deerfield, a three bedroom ranch plan, is priced from $101,900; the Regency, a two-story home with four bedrooms, starts at $117,900; the Westbrook, a colonial, two-story, four-bedroom home, is priced from $128,900; the Westport is a four bedroom, two-story house from $138,900; and the Estate, a two-story, four-bedroom from $148,900.

The Eye Care Center of Lake County Announces New Cataract Surgery Procedure

Barry L. Seiller, M.D. ophthalmologist and Director of Medical and Surgical Services for the Eye Care Center of Lake County, performed a new procedure for cataract surgery utilizing a new and unique foldable lens for implantation. This Lake County first, was performed at Victory Memorial Hospital.

The successful use of this new, foldable intraocular lens will greatly enhance the procedure of small incision phacoemulsification in the treatment of cataracts. The folded lens can fit through a much smaller incision than a flat rigid lens, reducing patient's healing time.

Dr. Seiller is the only ophthalmologist in the Chicago area currently performing implantation of this second generation lens manufactured by Allergan Medical Optics.

For further information on how the new foldable lens and cataract surgery may help you, call the EYE CARE CENTER OF LAKE COUNTY at 312/244-1657, ask for Pat.

Outlaw pull tabs for holiday

Measures eliminating pull tabs on beverage cans, new day care category and tougher penalties for child abuse are among the more than 40 new state laws that go into effect on July 1, according to Senate Minority Whip Jack Schaffer. (R-McHenry County) of the 32nd Dist.

In addition, Schaffer said that all Illinois homes and apartments must have smoke detectors installed by July 1. House Bill 3, which mandates the installation, became law in August, 1987. But it contains a delayed date for installation of the detectors, to allow homeowners adequate time to comply with the new law.

Senate Bill 218 bans the sale of detachable pull-tab beverage cans in the State of Illinois after July 1, 1988. Schaffer said the pull tabs present a safety hazard for individuals who may be cut when stepping on the tabs, for equipment operators since the tabs can get caught in machinery, and for livestock that may swallow the tabs.

Other new laws that become effective on July 1 include:

Sexual Assault (SB 1376)—Adds a child's guardian, foster parent and teacher to the list of those persons who can be charged with criminal sexual assault, punishable by four to 15 years in prison; and aggravated, criminal sexual abuse, punishable by three to seven years in prison, if they committed the crime while responsible for the child. Currently, only family members can be charged with those offenses. The measure also makes it a Class 1 felony, punishable by six to 30 years in prison and up to a $10,000 fine, to possess 100 grams or more of a controlled substance.

Child Abuse (SB 1025)—Makes it a Class 1 felony, punishable by four to 15 years in prison, for a second conviction of aggravated battery of a child, if the crime occurred within three years of a prior conviction for the same offense. Also makes it an aggravated battery offense, punishable by two to five years in prison, to attack a handicapped person.

Group Day Care Homes (SB 407)—Addresses the need for day care for children in rural communities by creating a new licensing category of day care facilities—"Group Day Care Homes". Group homes will be able to provide care for three to 12 children under the age of 12 for less than 24 hours at a time. The new licensing category is expected to provide an alternative for small communities because care can be offered in the home, without the financial restrictions of hiring an aide, and other burdensome and unrealistic regulations.

Illinois Grown (HB 1187)—Requires the Dept. of Agriculture to design and produce a label with the words "Illinois Grown" on it. The label will then be made available for use on containers of fruit, vegetables, meat and other food commodities produced or originated in Illinois. Participation in the program is voluntary for food producers.

Youth Employment Program (SB 523)—Allows the state to establish and administer, on an experimental basis, community-based programs to increase the future employment and career development of disadvantaged youths age 16 to 20.

Grinnell to have first fundraiser

A fundraiser for Sheriff Clinton O. Grinnell is scheduled for Wednesday, July 6, at the Country Squire Restaurant, Grayslake.

Chicago radio personality Bob Collins will be the host and master of ceremony for the 4 to 8 p.m. event.

State, county and local politicians are expected to attend the fundraiser.

The festivities include live entertainment, hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar. Tickets costing $25 will be available at the door.

Summer classes up at college

Enrollment has climbed at the College of Lake County for the summer semester. Total enrollment is 6,304, a .04 percent increase over last summer's enrollment of 6,278 students.

Full-time enrollment is at 967 students, a slight decrease of 1.8 percent from last summer's total of 985. Part-time enrollment increased 0.8 percent, from 5,293 to 5,337. Full-time equivalent enrollment is at 1,364, a 0.3 percent decrease from last year's 1,368.

Students are nearly equally divided, with 45 percent enrolled in career curriculum and 44 percent in college transfer curriculum. The percentage of enrolled students following college transfer curriculum has increased from 38 percent in 1987.

The number of students who have transferred from other colleges has jumped 12.4 percent over last summer's figures. The number of evening students has increased by 1.5 percent over last summer.

These figures, regarded as the official enrollment statistics for the 1988 summer session, are based on enrollment as of the 10th day of the summer session.

Bar picks 3 judges

The Judicial Selection and Retention Committee of the Lake County Bar Assn. has recently completed its evaluation of candidates for appellate judge in the 2nd Judicial Dist. The committee found the following candidates qualified: Lawrence D.

Inglis of Antioch, Francis C. Mahoney of Freeport, and Robert D. McLaren of Wheaton.

Day for teen-agers

LINDENHURST--An outstanding village teen-ager will receive $100 in cash and a plaque on Teen Recognition Day Friday, Aug. 19, as part of the five-day Lindenfest. Nominations are now being received for those who excel in community service, academics, athletics or other endeavor. The first-time program will also include a talent Gong Show, teen dance and award of a pizza party for 10.

Boating getting risky

MCHEHENRY--Despite this week's welcome rain, water levels on the Chain O' Lakes are down four to six inches. This is equivalent to levels normally seen in late summer, says Frank Novak, lockmaster at the McHenry Dam where levels of the chain are controlled. Boating restrictions are not planned, he said, but boaters should be cautious. He advises running slower than usual and staying in deeper water. Those who ignore this advice are likely to end up with a $200 to $300 propeller replacement. Gates at the dam are only slightly open, letting little water through in order to maintain the level downstream. Novak said evaporation takes about 4.5 inches of water per month from the chain.

Governor awards Beach

ROUND LAKE--Round Lake Beach has won a second governor's hometown award for its Youth Commission program, which was presented by Lieutenant Governor George H. Ryan to Trustee Dick Maston and commission member Vic Ligenza at an awards dinner in Springfield.

Sewer rates going up

FOX LAKE--Village trustees are expected to adopt a resolution at a meeting on Tuesday, July 5, calling for a $1.28 increase in monthly sewer rates. This is expected to trigger similar action in neighboring communities in the Northwest Sewer Dist. More revenue is required to fund an upgrade and expand the Fox Lake treatment plant.

No street for school

LAKE VILLA--Residents living near Pleviak School will have the village attorney represent them at a public hearing Wednesday, July 20, in their opposition to the partial vacation of Villa Ave. for playground expansion. They say this will block direct access to their homes on the street. Residents fear this is another in a series of steps toward westward expansion of the school into a residential area. The Board of Education admits to having long-range growth plans, but not for several years.

Eye amusement tax

VERNON HILLS--Imposition of a proposed five percent amusement tax will add an additional $200,000 in annual revenue to village coffers. Mayor Phillip Ellis predicts more villages will invoke a similar tax as a source of income.

Pumps need work

NORTH CHICAGO--North Chicago Water Committee members heard a report from John Rubich, North Chicago Water Dept. superintendent, that many water meters are slow and old and will need to be replaced. According to Rubich, many of the meters have broken glass and "when the glass breaks there is an accumulation of dirt and water. The dirt prohibits the numbers on the meter from moving up," Rubich said.

Class-action Com Ed suit

VENETIAN VILLAGE—Residents have retained the Waukegan law firm of Snyder, Clark, Dalziel and Johnson to represent them in a class-action lawsuit against Commonwealth Edison Co. An estimated 200 to 300 persons lost appliances, sump pumps, refrigerators, televisions and electric motors in a 45-minute power surge the morning of June 15. By the time all claims are filed it is estimated they could range up to $30,000. First action of the group is to obtain an injunction to prevent the utility from contacting or settling with any customer separately.

School impact fee study

ROUND LAKE BEACH—Lake Villa grade schools and Grayslake High School have decided not to join in a four-month study of impact fees paid by new subdivision developers to school districts. It will be undertaken by Jeanne Becker and Associates. Taxing bodies in Avon, Grant and Lake Villa townships have been asked to contribute up to $1,500 per unit to fund the 10-part study concluding with a general meeting of all those involved. Fees now paid by developers in advance of construction fund new classrooms for anticipated students under a formula established by state law.

OK open space plan

GRAYSLAKE—The Grayslake Village Board has adopted an open space plan for the future. Grayslake Mayor Ed Schroeder said the plan, which has six parts, has been in the works since before the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist.'s announced plan to buy the Picket Fence property.

Plan 121-room hotel

LAKE ZURICH—Plans for a 25-acre complex with a shopping center, hotel and residential area at Clover Hill and Rand Rds. has drawn negative reaction from area residents. They fear the proximity of the development to their five-acre homesites is a lack of proper village planning. They also fear the four-story hotel will not be upscale since it contains no conference rooms or similar amenities. Fifteen acres of the tract still must be annexed to the village. Plans for the complex are being advanced by Trapani Construction Co. of Mount Prospect.

Emmons nixes mix

ANTIOCH—The Emmons Grade School Board voted to nix consolidation with any other school district and approved putting a tax rate hike referendum on November's ballot. After a year of study based on predicted future school enrollment, the board decided that this was the best way to handle the school's future. Emmons had considered consolidation with either Grass Lake School or Antioch Grade School Dist. 34.

Health bill skyrockets

LINDENHURST—New health insurance rates by Blue Cross-Blue Shield that are an estimated 80 to 90 percent more than last year were scheduled to take effect July 1. This prompted village trustees to seek bids on new coverage for the 20-plus covered employees. The board will meet in special session next week to pick a new carrier. Doing so may mean a reduction in some coverages, increase in deductible or, at worst, partial employee contribution.

OK open space plan

GRAYSLAKE—The Grayslake Village Board has adopted an open space plan for the future. Grayslake Mayor Ed Schroeder said the plan, which has six parts, has been in the works since before the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist.'s announced plan to buy the Picket Fence property.

Debate sign future

GURNEE—Warren Twp. High School Board of Education members and O'Plaine Rd. residents debated the future location of a proposed electronic sign. Residents say the 19 foot, 10 inch tall sign is too big for a residential neighborhood. Warren High will use the sign to tell the community about upcoming high school events.

Cancel fireworks show

LAKE ZURICH—In the interest of public safety, the July 4 fireworks display has been canceled. Existing drought conditions and an a larger-than-normal crowd anticipated this year led to the decision. Village officials said the threat of overburdening emergency services was a key factor in reaching the decision.

Eye water costs

GURNEE—Gurnee officials are trying to find a way to come up with a $90,000 shortfall so they can provide village water service to residents on five streets. The residents have petitioned the village for water service and had about 20 people attend the last Gurnee Village Board meeting. Gurnee Mayor Dick Welton said if more residents state they wish to be part of the project, the cost will go down.

GREAT LAKES—Belying reports of cutbacks at Great Lakes and adjoining Ft. Sheridan, Sen. Alan J. Dixon (D-Ill.) announced this week military construction projects for the 1989 fiscal year that includes a new $2.4 million child-care center at Ft. Sheridan, a $2.4 million applied-training facilities improvement at Great Lakes and a $1.9 million water-storage tank at the Navy Public Works Center-Great Lakes. A total of $70.6 million was included for these projects in the Senate's recommendation for spending on Illinois military bases.

6 fun days in progress

MUNDELEIN—Now in the midst of six days of fun, this village has the welcome mat out for its annual Community Days, which started Wednesday with the Little Miss, Junior Miss and Miss Mundelein preliminaries. They will be crowned in a pageant on Saturday, July 2, at 7:30 p.m. in Mundelein High School. Daily activities are scheduled, including a gigantic fireworks display at 9 p.m. on Monday, July 4. Named Mundelein's Family of the Year are Mr. and Mrs. J. Morris Shields. They will serve as marshals of a parade on Sunday, July 3, at 2 p.m.

Demo's pick Hoff to run for sheriff

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Democrats have slated John Hoff, a retired Waukegan police officer who heads his own security service, as their candidate for sheriff in the fall election. Hoff, 61, says he is excited about the possibility of being elected and bringing new professionalism to the office.

He will take on incumbent Clinton Grinnell, 55, who came to the job in March with the death of Robert "Mickey" Babcox. The former chief deputy was slated by the Republican party last month. He had no challengers.

Hoff bested two other hopefuls in winning the endorsement of Democratic precinct committeemen meeting June 22 in Libertyville. Also running were Sander Stagman of Highland Park and Stanley Skrypek of Mundelein.

Hoff said he will take a four months' leave of absence from the presidency of Captain's Security in Waukegan to run for sheriff. "I am well known along the North Shore," he said, "but west of Rte. 45 I could use some name recognition," he said of plans to spend lots of time working the county. "My name and that of my family is well known in law enforcement throughout Lake County," the candidate said.

Running the business in his absence will be his son, Ralph C. Hoff. Captain's Security provides guards for all types of businesses, does security consulting and detective work. Hoff started the business ten years ago after serving one term as Waukegan alderman for the 7th Dist. on the northeast side from 1976 to 1978. He retired as lieutenant of police in 1976 after 27 years on the Waukegan Police Dept., 17 of them in the detective bureau. He followed in the footsteps of his father, who spent 35 years with the same department. His brother, Lawrence, was assistant Waukegan police chief at the time of his retirement in 1980 after 25 years on the force. Prior to starting his own business Hoff was in charge of all security at Lakehurst mall in Waukegan.

"I like Grinnell," Hoff said of his opponent. "He is a grand guy. But I think he would be happier as deputy sheriff than sheriff. I think my police qualifications and leadership background make me the more acceptable candidate."

"I went out and worked for this nomination," Hoff said of lobbying Democratic precinct committeemen to get the endorsement. "Grinnell is a handpicked candidate of the party and I don't think the people of Lake County necessarily want that," Hoff said he also was good friends with Babcox.

John Hoff

"There is too much political clout in the sheriff's office," Hoff said. "If elected I will pick officers for jobs based on their qualifications, not who they know or what party they belong to." Hoff promises to debate Grinnell on this topic and others as the two can-diates meet on platforms along the campaign leading to the Tuesday, Nov. 8, election.

"I think people want a change in the sheriff's office," Hoff continued. "That is what prompted me to run. Since my candidacy became known I have received lots of encouragement from throughout the county. I am excited about this race. In the next four months the people of this county are going to see and hear a lot about me."

Until two-and-one-half years ago Hoff was a registered Republican. He even served as a Republican precinct committeeman in Waukegan from 1976 to 1982. "I became disenchanted with the party," he said of becoming a Democrat. "I still have a lot of Republican friends. I think they and others should vote for the candidate, not along party lines." That is what Hoff is hoping for in this race for the two-year unexpired term to succeed Babcox.

Hire lifeguards

Three summer lifeguards have been hired by the Lindenhurst Recreation Dept. for hours to be determined by weather and beach attendance. Pay ranges from $3.75 per hour for the one guard without experience to $4.50 for the one with experience. All have advanced lifesaving training.

Drought hasn't dried up Lake County

Even before the welcome mid-week rain that soaked the parched countryside, Lake County might have been called the "Sahara of the North." Unlike many other parts of the state and nation, crops, gardens and, even, lawns were holding their own. But they were only days away from taking a knock-out punch due to the worst drought to affect the nation since 1934.

"Back in 1934 I was six or seven years old. My family had a dairy farm. I can remember we had to buy quite a few good-sized loads of hay. Most of it came from Nebraska. We were milking 60 to 70 cows at the time. The drought went on for a long time. The end came a year or two later when it rained so much it pretty near washed out the Island Lake dam, which was rather new at the time."

Lyle Matthews, Wauconda fire chief.

All growing things from the trees overhead to the grass below and the farm crops spreading across the countryside were drooping in the unseasonable 1988 heat that saw temperatures last weekend hit the 100-plus mark. Although some parts of the county have received occasional sprinkles, there has been no measurable rainfall since May 28. The welcome rain that arrived June 28 amounted to one-half inch at O'Hare Field and .93 of an inch at the Illinois-

"I was born in the year of the big drought of '34, so I don't remember much about it. There have been dry years since then, like 1955, but I don't think that was as bad as this. But you can't fight the weatherman."

Leroy Gwaltney, Warren Twp. farmer.

Wisconsin border. Despite the welcome moisture and cooler temperatures, the area is still four to six inches below normal rainfall and at least seven degrees hotter than normal. This has produced drought or near-drought conditions that have affected Lake County's rapidly urbanizing countryside that has seen it change from an area with herds of milk cows, fields of corn and acres of vegetables to sprouting streets and subdivisions.

An increase is being asked by Lake County farm members of the Pure Milk Assn. and northern Illinois dairy farmers because of the high price of feed and forage. Hay and grain crops are exceedingly small where they are not total failures, and the corn crop will be smaller than usual. Many farmers have been forced to ship in hay at a cost of $22 per ton. To meet this high cost of feed, they are asking for a price increase from $2.25 to $2.75 per hundred weight for fluid first-class milk. It is expected the retail price for a quart of milk in Chicago and the North Shore will rise one cent should the increase be granted.

The Antioch News, Aug. 23, 1934

Farm fields without water not as good as other years

Of the 1,200 acres of corn, soybeans, wheat and oats Leroy Gwaltney has under cultivation in northern Lake County, none looks as good as other years.

"Frankly, the crops are hurting," he said about more than six weeks without measurable rainfall until this week when almost one inch arrived. "Some crops have just burned up," he said of corn planted on hills where moist ground was noticeably absent until the middle of this week. "Some corn didn't even come up. You can't grow without water."

Yields of wheat and oats will be down, but Gwaltney doesn't know how much until harvest time starting later this month.

July is when he also hopes his fields of soybeans start to germinate. "Whole fields are just standing there waiting for some rain," he said. "If the rain comes I might have something to show for all the work."

Rain this week was critical for Gwaltney's fields. "Any time you go past the optimum growing point it creates problems," the 54-year-old farmer said. Unless more rain is received to make up for this year's shortfall he can see further problems ahead. Land he has under tillage spreads across Warren, Avon and Lake Villa townships.

Lake County still has a significant agricultural economy. It was holding its own through this week.

"In 1934 I was 12 years old. I remember the dust in the air from farmland out west. It was sort of reddish. To keep cool we went swimming every day off Stanton Point. My mother also made a lot of sandwiches and lemonade, which we ate under the trees in the back yard. When the ice man came he would give us a sliver or two, which we ate like an icicle. Mother wrapped the cake of ice in the ice box in newspaper to make it last longer. To keep the flies out of the house, we cut a folded newspaper with strips in it and put on the screen door. In the evening we smeared ourselves with citronella to keep the mosquitos away."

Alberta "Bernie" Miller, Grant Twp. supervisor.

The county's corn crop, a pretty fair barometer of climatic conditions, was just about at its traditional knee-high stand for the 4th of July.

My dad worked at Allendale School in Lake Villa. Back in the year of the big 1930s drought I remember him driving a team of horses out into Cedar Lake about 1,000 yards on cracked mud flats. The west shore is shallow and the lake had dried up to a drop-off point near the middle. Children and adults were out there picking up rocks and stuff to clean the bottom."

William "Bill" Thompson, retired regional school superintendent.

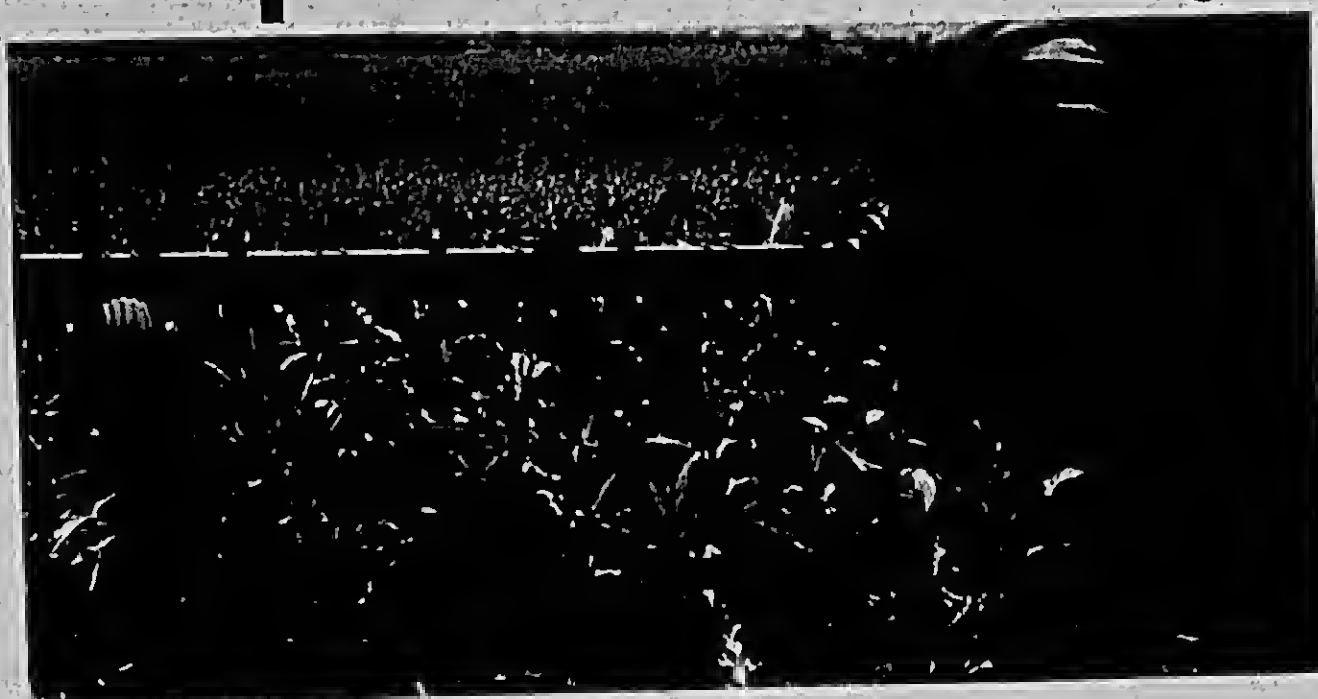

Robert J. Schmerbauch, Lake County Extension Service advisor and one of the most knowledgeable crop observers around, calls this a good sign. "It'll be another week or two before corn reaches the stage where moisture demands are heavy. If rain comes by then, we'll be in pretty good shape," Schmerbauch declared.

"Sure, I remember '34 well. That was the year of the World's Fair in Chicago. I was eight years old. For a quart of cinch bugs you could get in free. I think we picked them from corn. Yes, and the sky got dark with dust clouds that year, too. Because it was so hot and dry that year I'd take a mattress, throw it up on a pile of crates we had behind a shed and get the nice, cool breeze so I could sleep."

Herb Didier, Prairie View truck farmer.

Even with this week's rain, Schmerbauch predicted harvest ears weighing 4-10ths of a pound instead of the normal one-half pound. "At that rate you can see the crop being off 20 percent," the farm expert said.

"We're watching the 'stand count'—how many plants there are in the field. Now is the critical time for losing plants if moisture is insufficient," Schmerbauch pointed out.

Knee-high corn

Corn in Lake County fields is knee-high, as it is supposed to be, for the Fourth of July. But because of the drought there are doubts the ears will be as big as past years, the kernels as many or the yield as good. Some areas of the county have received more rain in recent weeks than other parts of the state or county, making this a growing season that has not yet reached the critical stage.

The 1988 corn crop got a "fairly good start," he said, which is why corn plants are coping without any significant moisture in nearly two months. Rain is needed to "fill out" the ears and kernels that already have formed.

Because its growth comes early, the winter wheat harvest will be near normal, running between 40 to 50 bushels per acre. Combining will be starting right after the July 4th holiday.

Because no rain fell during the first cutting of hay in June, quality was very good, Schmerbauch said, but quantity was off 40 percent. The second cutting, normally beginning July 10, will be zero this season.

Due to the continuing drought, more than 700 Lake County farmers applied for feed, seed or grain at the Illinois Emergency Relief headquarters set up in Waukegan. The program with a $50 relief limit will help maintain dairy herds and livestock.

The Grayslake Times, June 28, 1934

Schmerbauch demurred in comparing 1988 with the Depression drought year of 1934, recalled by old-timers this week as the worst previous drought period hereabouts. "I wasn't even born yet," Schmerbauch chuckled. "We had a lot of dry weather in 1954-55, but the drought that year came later in summer."

In Lake County, more people than the decreasing number of farmers are keeping a wary eye on the soybean crop. Commodities traders are as concerned as farmers about whether the beans will weather the extreme dry conditions.

"Back in the '30s drought I remember the sky turning dark with clouds of dust and sand from out west where it came off the fields. Things were tough all over. Remember, we didn't have air conditioners, fans or refrigerators. You kept cool at night sleeping by an open window. The windows were always open in the house. Sometimes it was too hot to sleep in the house, so you'd go outside and lay on the ground where it was cool, under a tree, and sleep."

Joseph Molitor, retired Round Lake postmaster

The Lake County oat crop has been "substantially hurt," according to Schmerbauch. Locally grown oats is a key feed crop for the county's burgeoning horse population. The extension advisor said oat prices already are at $2.85 to $3 per bushel, and the crop here is about 50 percent of normal.

It's almost a foregone conclusion that bean stalks will be shorter. If more rain falls soon, the bean count could be close to the county's normal crop of 30 bushels per acre. Otherwise, production will sag to 20 to 25 bushels per acre. That's a lot of money at current soybean futures.

Article compiled from countywide staff reports

This year's truck farm crop looks good, green

For those planning to pick a red, ripe tomato, juicy cucumber, succulent zucchini or golden ear of sweet corn from the shelf at their favorite roadside stand in Lake County, there is good news. "This looks like a good year," said Herb Didier, who has been a farmer and operated a popular roadside stand in southern Lake County for 40 years. His stand is on Aptakisic Rd. exactly two miles from either Rtes. 83 or 45.

His 20 acres of tomatoes look "excellent, considering," in his words. The same for three acres of eggplant. "The four acres of onions don't look that good because the soil is too dry and hard," Didier said.

Some of the farm's 15 acres of zucchini was picked and on the stand earlier this week.

The 15 acres of broccoli, five acres of cucumber and 15 acres of squash are as good as the rest of the crops. The 10 acres of pumpkins "looked a little small," so I gave them a shot of nitrogen," he said when he returned one day this week from the field for lunch.

Biggest crop Didier is keeping an eye on is 200 acres of sweet corn. Some is already knee high. "If it starts to tassel before we get some rain it won't be good," Didier said. "But it is hanging in there. We'll have corn, no doubt about it." Almost one inch of rain earlier this week was a shot in the arm for this and other crops at the critical growing stage on Didier's farm and others throughout Illinois.

Didier's farm, like others in the southern half of the county, look good because of a 1.4-inch rainfall last week. There have been occasional sprinkles since the last good soaking in late May. "I guess we just live the right kind of life," Didier said about rain and good crops while others are talking about drought and the Dust Bowl years of the Depression. While the year 1934 and John Steinbeck's famous novel, "Grapes of Wrath," might be compared to 1988 in some parts of the nation, that's not true in Lake County.

Ex-teacher gets sex abuse charges

An Antioch resident, Alan B. Floor, 34, an ex-school teacher at Lake Villa Intermediate School, was arrested June 21 on eight counts of aggravated criminal sexual abuse committed against two of his students, Lake County Sheriff Clinton Grinnell said.

The Lake County Children's Advocacy Center investigative team, composed of Lake County Juvenile Officer Portia Wallace, investigator Mark Pleasant and investigators from the sheriff's office reopened the investigation in May when new information was obtained in the year-old case.

The original complaint in April, 1987, charging Floor with sexual abuse was stalled because there was not enough evidence to substantiate the filing of a criminal complaint. However, the investigators' persistence in collecting bits and pieces of information brought forth enough evidence to reopen the case, Grinnell said.

Floor is accused of sexually abusing two female children on numerous occasions over a two-year period.

"On June 21 the Child Advocacy investigative team and sheriff's investigators, accompanied by Chicago Area Six Youth Div. officers arrested Floor at his place of employment in Chicago after an eight-count felony warrant had been obtained.

After being advised of his rights under the Miranda Rule, Floor gave a full confession to the investigators and was transported back to the Lake County Jail, where he was being held on a $100,000 bond.

"It was good, hard police work on the part of the Lake County Child Advocacy Investigative Team and the sheriff's officers. I am proud of them and their accomplishment," Grinnell said.

Softball City wins court battle its for needed permits

When Softball City owner Otis Carter watches softball games at his Hainesville facility, playing "hard ball" means teams trying their best to win.

But off the diamond, the phrase has a whole different meaning for Carter.

"He's playing hard ball with us," Carter said.

Carter was referring to Hainesville Mayor George Benjamin, who had not given the Softball City its occupancy and vending permits. Lake County Judge Harry Hartel told Benjamin to give the permits to Softball City owners in a court order last week.

"It's not helped our image one bit," Carter said.

Carter said there were rumors spreading that the facility would not open on time but the owners talked to the teams participating and it did open on schedule on June 6.

Softball City has been a topic of heated debate in tiny Hainesville.

One of the first issues was hours of operation.

The Softball City owners sought a 11:30 p.m. closing because the number of teams was higher than expected. The Hainesville Village Board agreed to this, but Benjamin opposed it.

At a later meeting, the board voted 5-1 to demand that Benjamin give the permits to Softball City.

Carter said things have gone well in the first month of operations at Hainesville Rd.

Some 151 teams are competing in leagues at Softball City.

Musical notes

It's hot, it's muggy and for the next few months most of the entertainment in the Chicago-Milwaukee area will take place outdoors.

On Friday, July 1, Bruce Hornsby and the Range with Pat McLaughlin will be on the Marcus Amphitheater's stage at Milwaukee's Summerfest. Heart with Michael Bolton will follow on Saturday at 7:30 p.m., "An Evening with John Cougar Mellencamp," whose hit "Cherry Bomb" tops the charts, on Sunday, followed by appearances on each following day through Thursday, July 8, in order of appearance, Herb Alpert and the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, Billie Ocean with Brenda Russell, George Thorogood and the Delaware Destroyers, Freddie Jackson appearing with Natalie Cole and on Thursday, Steve Winwood. What a dynamite agenda!

On the south side of the state line, the Chicago Park Dist.'s 41st Summer Season of Concerts in the Parks runs from July 5-10 starting with Rudy Macciochi's Concert Band at 7 p.m. at McKiernan Park on Sawyer Ave.

With the return of the popularity of Latin music via "LaBomba" and "Salsa", the park district will be featuring Latin music styles in eight local parks with the Tommy Gomez Latin Orchestra, Orquesta Primavera and Orquesta Internacional. Call the park district for pertinent information.

Its Loverboy on Wednesday, July 6 and Squeeze on July 8 rockin' all over the stage at Poplar Creek in Hoffman Estates.

On stage

The tops in music is not the only draw to Summerfest. The Comedy Cabaret will be featuring some of the nation's top stand-up funny men. Dennis Miller will be doing two shows on Friday, July 1. Rich Hall will be leaving them laughing with two shows on Saturday, July 2. The yaks will be coming from Will Durst who will be on stage twice daily on both Sunday, July 3 and also on firecracker day.

Gill Gottfried will be doin' it on July 5 and 6 and Fred and Louie Anderson take over on July 7 and 8.

Don't miss all the entertainment slated to be part of Mundelein Days over the holidays. John Lynn of the Kirk players will be producing this year's variety show which will feature television's own Garfield Goose, Wauconda dancers, Gerry Traxler's Choral Dynamics, dancers from Kim Kallas' Studio, Carol Marie Fischesser, the Kirk Players' best storyteller, contest winners Desiree Russell, Loren Sietman and B. G. Nesbitt.

'Music Under the Stars'

The 'Music Under the Stars' concert series of Hawthorn Center in Vernon Hills will take place in mall's north parking lot. There will be three free concerts starting on Tuesday, July 12 with the Four Lods and also the New Chardettes. On Tuesday, July 19, the Lettermen will be doing some new tunes and some revivals. The music of big band era will be returning for short time on Tuesday, July 26 when the Artie Show orchestra will be in concert.

Crowds chomp at rodeo bit

by CHRIS LAUBACH

It is rodeo time in Wauconda again and this year Sam Selvaggio, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, said, "This is the biggest Rodeo Wauconda has ever had...about 12,000 plus people are expected to attend."

Selvaggio said that all of the preparations for the rodeo are going great and that there is still vendor space available, but not food vendors.

The rodeo will be held July 8, 9 and 10.

Advanced ticket prices for Friday and Sunday are $6 for adults and $2 for children. Advanced and regular ticket prices for Saturday are $8 for adults and $4 for children. And, regular prices for Friday and Saturday are $7 for adults and $3 for children.

Other entertainment during rodeo days include a live broadcast by WXET on Friday, a craft fair on Saturday and Sunday and a parade starting at noon on Sunday.

Lou Mercieri said the parade will feature three or four major drum corps (one of which is ranked third in the nation), community groups, horses, fire trucks and Ronald McDonald as the grand marshal.

Volunteers are always welcome. For more information or to volunteer service call 1-800-847-4864 or the Wauconda Chamber of Commerce at (312)526-5580.

Tall tales at storytelling fest

Spring Grove will host the fifth annual Illinois Storytelling Festival on Saturday and Sunday, July 30 and 31. The quiet rural village will play host to storytellers from across America who will come to practice the gentle art of storytelling—an artform as ancient as humankind.

The festival is held in the village park on Main St. in Spring Grove. Listeners can sit under large, colorful circus tents or sit on blankets on the grass. The event is for all ages. There are sessions for adults as well as children in the various tents.

Among the featured tellers this year are Waddie Mitchell—America's best known cowboy poet. Born and raised in northern Nevada, Mitchell has been a rancher all of his life. Inspired by verses recited by ranch hands in bunkhouses and around campfires, he has taken his poetic recitations of cowboy life to cattlemen's associations, festivals and to the Johnny Carson Show.

Another storyteller will be Mary Carter Smith, Baltimore's official "Griot," an African term for folklorist or storyteller. Her tales include traditional African myths, folktales, and such modern offerings as a "hip" Cinderella who goes to the ball in a stretch limousine, marries the mayor's son and appoints her brothers to the city council.

Jon Spelman, another tale-teller scheduled, has won three "Emmy" awards and will be appearing in off-Broadway this fall in New York City. His repertoire is expansive with tales as diverse as the Old English Beowulf and Southern Tall Tales.

August Rubrecht, an Ozark humorist and an English professor, has become a storytelling festival favorite by telling his hilarious stories of growing up in Arkansas.

Rosalie Sorrels, of Boise, Idaho, sings and tells of a mythical west where women were as strong and as enduring as men. She has performed for nearly 30 years at clubs, universities and major folk festivals across the United States, Canada and Europe.

Susan Klein, of Martha's Vineyard in Massachusetts, will bring "Down East" New England stories to life with wonderful "dryness" and subtlety of wit.

Marilyn Kinsella, of southern Illinois, tells American folktales, personal stories from her own experience, and has a particular interest in native American stories.

Waddie Mitchell

Bill Smith grew up on the edge of the Adirondack Mountains hearing stories in his mother's kitchen, at lumber camps and around the campfires of Adirondack guides. In his stories, listeners meet the river drivers, loggers, the Mohawk Tribe, French Canadians, rum runners, guides and the bears of the big woods.

Spring Grove is located on Rte. 12, five miles north of Fox Lake in northeastern Illinois—just south of the Wisconsin state line, approximately one hour and 15 minutes from downtown Chicago and Milwaukee.

The Illinois Storytelling Festival is sponsored by the Illinois Arts Council—a state agency—and the National Endowment for the Arts, the Village of Spring Grove, the College of Lake County, the McHenry County College, the McHenry County Storytellers Guild, the Northlands Storytelling Network and the E-Z Go Golf Car. This program is produced by the Illinois Storytelling Festival, Inc.

No. 1 for Salvation Army

Patricia Brickhouse, who with her husband Jack chaired Salvation Army Donut Day in Chicago agrees with Romeo E. Mura, Barrington, co-chairman of Day for Charity in Land. They call Turnberry to be at Turnberry Country Club in Village of Lakewood, on Monday, July 18, that fur fling is prize both would like to win. Salvation Army's goal for this year is $80,000, which will double take from last year's celebrity pro-am golf gala. Fox fling being worn by Brickhouse is just one of many prizes to be given away to charity gala.

Top cookie seller

Wins talent contest

Desiree Russell, Mundelein, sophomore at Libertyville High school, won photogenic award at State STARS pageant in Springfield. She also won a photogenic award which will put her on month of April in STARS calendar. In her age division, she won talent contest and was crowned the Illinois Grand Talent after winning teen talent title singing "Don't Rain on My Parade." Russell will be attending the national finals at Woodfield Mall in August. She is reigning Junior Miss Mundelein and will be crowning her successor on Saturday, July 2.

Select Gurnee Scout

Kimberly S. Buchholz of Gurnee, daughter of Keith and Madge Buchholz, has been selected to attend "Whales, Witches, and Weavers", a Girl Scouts of the USA Wider Opportunity sponsored by Spar and Spindle Girl Scout Council, located in North Andover, Massachusetts.

The event, which will take place from July 14 to July 27, will give the 150 participants an opportunity to explore Massachusetts' exciting heritage.

The girls will visit the USS Constitution, Bunker Hill monument, Faneuil Hall, and walk the Freedom Trail in Boston. They will also go on a whale watch in Gloucester; visit historic Salem, home of the famous witchcraft trials; and visit Lowell's National Historic Park which offers an opportunity to explore America's Heritage.

Buchholz will also spend four days with a local host family and visit other places in historic New England.

She attends Warren Twp. High School, beginning her senior year in the fall. She is an 11-year member of Girl Scouts, and earned the Silver Award in 1987. Her other activities include school choir, church choir and pulpit search committee for Gurnee Community Church. She applied for this event because "I like the water, and thought it would be fun."

Florence Babusek

Babusek chairs council

Florence Babusek, Twin Lakes, Wis., has been elected chairperson of the College of Lake County General Advisory Council for 1988-89. She is an assistant vice president at the State Bank of Antioch, where she has been employed since 1972 and is a member of a number of professional organizations. Wadsworth resident Walter Kroll, president of Northshore Savings and Loan Assn., Waukegan, was elected vice chairperson. Outgoing chair, Robert Byrne of Byrne Business Consulting, was thanked for his service to the committee.

A yachting vacation

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTHSTAR TRAVEL, INC.

Did you ever dream of sailing the Caribbean in your own yacht? I'm not talking about the well-known "Windjammer Cruises". No, I mean your own private sailing yacht where you set the course!

You don't have to win the lottery to make that dream come true. If you have a couple of friends with the same dream, you can charter your own fully crewed yacht for less than the price of an average seven-day Caribbean cruise. And that includes meals, drinks (hard and soft), fuel, ice, the works.

For experienced sailors, there are many "sail yourself" yachts available. However, for the average sailor (such as myself, who can't keep his Butterfly sailboat upright), I'd suggest a crewed yacht. You get an experienced captain and a first mate who doubles as your cook. You'll have plenty of opportunity to take the helm with some expert instructions. Your crew does the housekeeping, provisions the boat and acts as your guide on shore excursions. You'll find most crews are actually husband and wife teams.

The majority of charters originate in the U.S. Virgin Islands. The calm waters and steady tradewinds make for unsurpassed sailing. Where you go from there is only limited by the length of your dream vacation. Seven to ten days is recommended, but you set the schedule.

Want to do a little diving? Century-old shipwrecks and colorful coral reefs await you. Snorkeling more your style? Anchor off a deserted white-sand beach and snorkel in for a shore lunch.

If sails, sun and sand are your thing, consider a yacht vacation.

Steam's up for antiquity cargo

With old steam locomotive No. 1385 puffing up front once again, a century and a quarter of colorful circus history will ride the rails from Baraboo to Milwaukee July 12-13 in the annual run of the Great Circus Train.

The half-mile long train will be loaded with 75 restored and resplendent circus wagons for the Great Circus Parade in Milwaukee July 17. The 222-mile parade prelude draws thousands of spectators along the rail route each year and has become second only to the parade itself in spectacle and excitement.

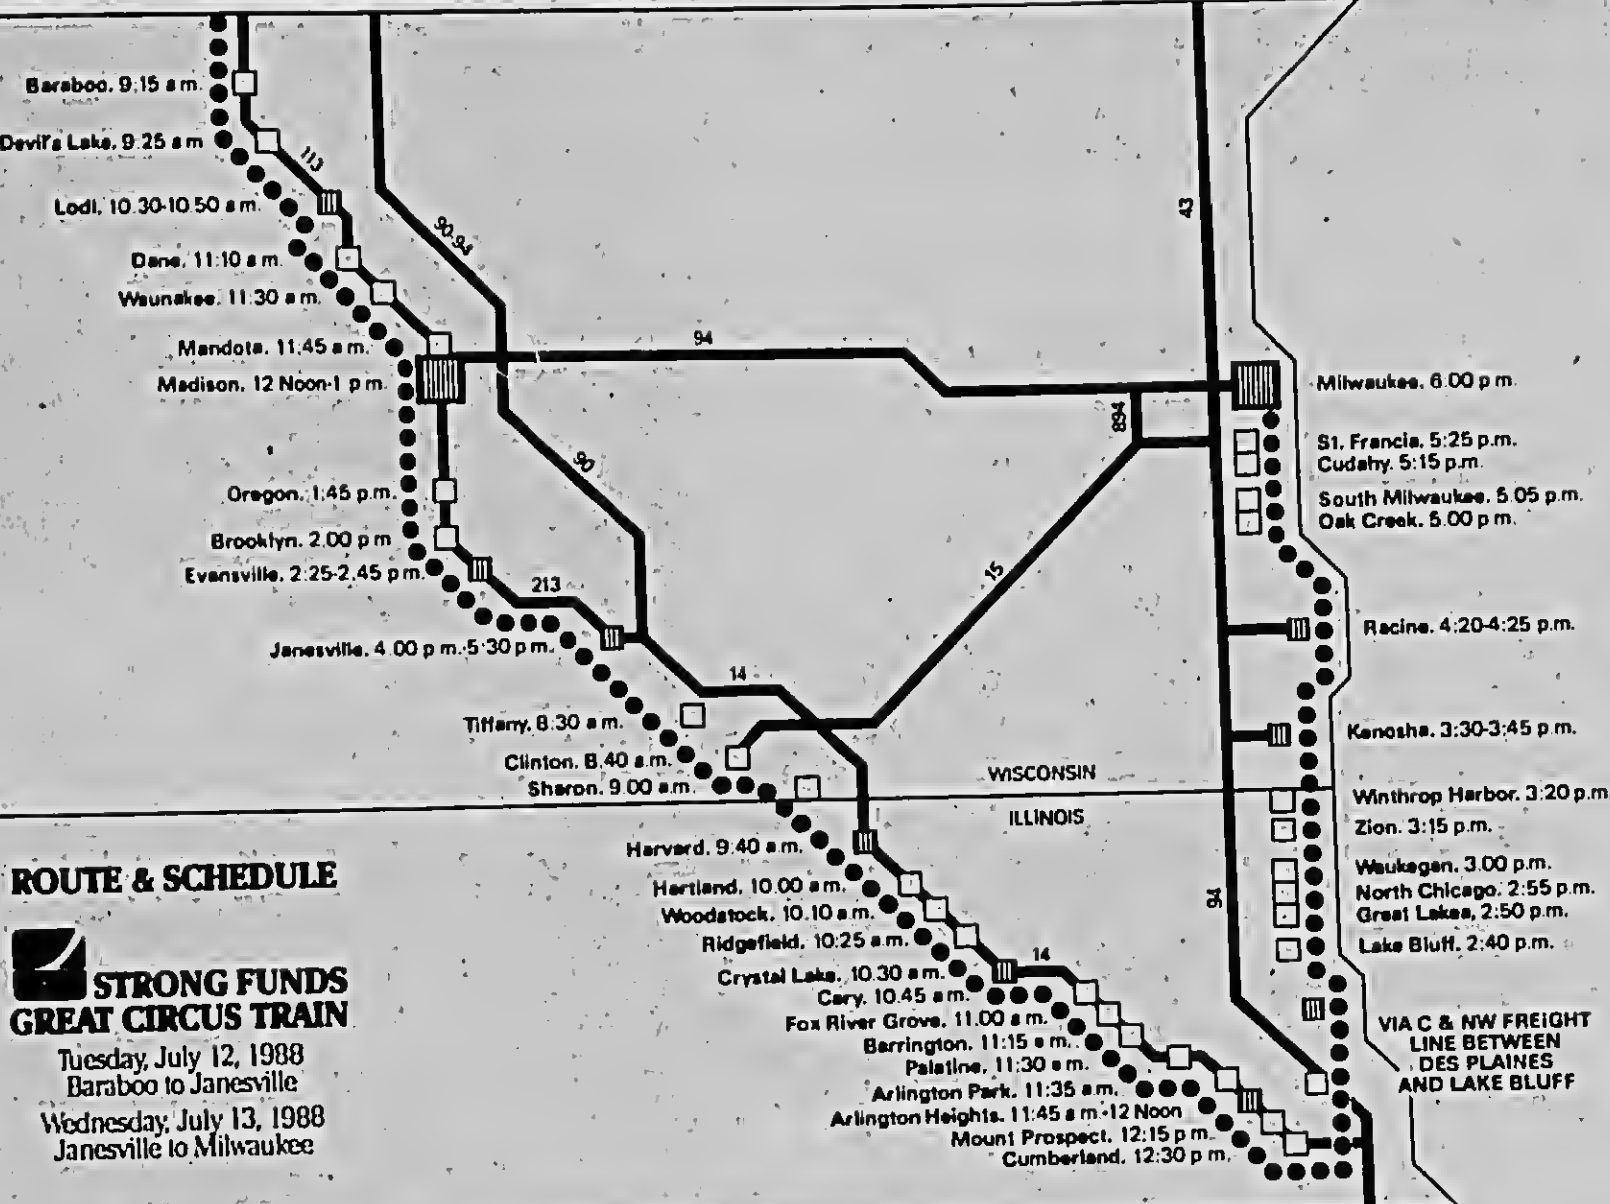

Sponsored for the third straight year by Strong Funds, a Milwaukee-based money management firm, the train of antiquity is scheduled to leave Baraboo at 9:15 a.m. July 12 with its priceless cargo from the Circus World Museum there.

It's due to chug into the circus parade's lakefront showgrounds in Milwaukee at 6 p.m. the following day, capping an unhurried two-day showoff journey through southern Wisconsin into northern Illinois and then back into Wisconsin—all along the route of the Chicago and North Western Railroad.

Between Baraboo and Milwaukee, the circus train will pass through 38 towns and hamlets, making seven scheduled stops, including an overnight stay at Janesville. All along the route each year, in every community and virtually at every rail crossing, youngsters and adults gather in bunches or crowds that add up to thousands to see the one-of-a-kind display of circus wagons from the past.

Both the loading of the antique wagons at Baraboo and the unloading at Milwaukee will be handled in traditional circus style—with teams of powerful Percheron horses. The wagons will be on public display at the Milwaukee showgrounds for three days before moving out for their horse-drawn review before hundreds of thousands of spectators in the 25th anniversary edition of the Great Circus Parade at 2 p.m. Sunday, July 17.

upwards of 800,000 people have jammed the four-mile parade route through downtown Milwaukee to witness the annual extravaganza of authentic circus wagons, draft and riding horses, elephants, lions, tigers and other circus animals, clowns, marching and wagontop bands, and stunningly costumed circus performers.

Sponsored by Strong Funds in cooperation with the Circus World Museum and the Chicago and North Western Railroad.

CLC Gallery plans Fink art exhibition

The Community Gallery of Art at the College of Lake County will exhibit work by Illinois artist Herbert L. Fink from July 14 through Aug. 12.

College sets ethnic tour

The rich cultural contributions of Chicago's ethnic groups will be the focus of the "Chicago Neighborhood

"Herbert L. Fink: Recent Watercolors and Drawings 1978-1987," features watercolors and drawings from figurative studies, literary narratives, studio scenes and metaphysical enigmas, as well as work related to the artist's 1985 trip to mainland China.

A professor of art at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, Fink has shown his work in numerous galleries and museums across the nation. He was the recipient of the 1986 Illinois Arts Council Governor's Award, and has received Guggenheim, Tiffany and Ford Foundation awards.

Through July 28, gallery hours are 8 a.m. to 9:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday. From Aug. 1 through 12, hours are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. CLC's Grayslake campus is located at 19351 W. Washington St.

Plot of Aykroyd, Candy film worn and predictable

No ★★

by GLORIA DAVIS

Actually, this reviewer started out anxiously to see and review "Who Framed Roger Rabbit," since it has been rated one of the best pictures of the year so far, but I couldn't find it playing at any theater nearby so I ended up going to see "The Great Outdoors," despite many misgivings.

MOST OF THOSE MISGIVINGS were on target, but happily others missed the mark entirely. With Dan Aykroyd starring in this outdoor opus with John Candy, I was afraid that Aykroyd was again going to miss his comedic mark by depending on crossplay with a dumber acting, chubbier foe as he has done in previous epics with John Belushi, and he does.

Aykroyd can be a better comedian than this, witness "Trading Places" with Eddie Murphy.

THE PLOT IS A WORN, and predictable one, naive family man (Candy) and his family have their vacation in the north woods disturbed by street-wise hot-shot crooked brother-in-law and family (Aykroyd of course.)

The scene where Candy tells the story about a bear's interruption of his honeymoon is a good one and lots of the woodsy shennanigans might be appreciated by the younger generation, but a tasteless scene where Candy and wife are surprised by Aykroyd and spouse who do a little videotaping of an amorous moment, is not exactly children's fare.

FOR SLAPSTICK DEVOTEES, there are some typical Jerry Lewis scenes where Candy water skis on everything but the water. And some parts of the chase that involves a giant bear going after Candy, draw a chuckle or two.

Somehow the film's editors failed to note a trainer's stick quite obviously prodding the bear as he walks over Candy who is crushed beneath the cabin's door in the chase's culmination.

I DON'T KNOW where bulk of the film was shot, but there are some lovely scenes that look like Canada if one is into travelogues.

The producers have even thrown in an inane teen romance just in case mom and dad can convince their teenagers to make it a family trip to the show.

THIS ISN'T THE WORST comedy of the season, but the real shame is that big time comedians like Candy and Aykroyd waste their talents on such a small time movie.

'Roger Rabbit' brings new life to world of animation

Yes ★★★

by BILL DOTSON

"WHO FRAMED ROGER RABBIT?", which blends the 1940s private eye genre (We serious film critics have to use the word "genre" every now and then) with animation, is a movie that may have people asking themselves more than once "How did they do that?"

Much praise is being lavished on the film for its amazing feats that have cartoon characters interact with the real world and vice-versa.

Granted, that idea in itself is nothing new. Live action has blended with animation before, in films like "Song of the South" and "Bedknobs and Broomsticks", to name just a couple. But its never before been done quite like this.

IN "ROGER RABBIT", REAL PEOPLE and cartoon characters touch each other- they dance, embrace, kiss, fight and throw each other around convincingly.

ONE OF THE MOST AMAZING sequences has real life star Bob Hoskins, riding in an animated car, being chased through the streets of 1947 Hollywood by a mob of cartoon weasels driving a real car.

How were these wonders achieved? Through the combined talents of Steven Spielberg's Industrial Light and Magic special effects company and the best animators in the best business.

The plot is simple. Seedy private eye Eddie Valiant (Hoskins) reluctantly takes on the task of trying to clear Roger Rabbit of murder charges and find out who the real culprit is before judgment can be passed on Roger by the ominous Judge Doom, played, as no one else could have, by the marvelous Christopher Lloyd, who has a real flair for the...bizarre.

HOSKINS DESERVES MUCH credit for his performance, especially in view of the fact that when he was filming many of his scenes, there was really no one else there but him.

"ROGER RABBIT" FEATURES many cameo appearances by famous cartoon stars, including Mickey Mouse and Bugs Bunny who appear briefly together, as do Daffy and Donald Duck (in a scene where Daffy says of Donald, "Can anybody understand what thith duck ith thaying?"), as well as Tweety Bird, Yosemite Sam, Porky Pig, Betty Boop, and that droopy, Truman Capote-like hound dog whose name I can't recall and its driving me nuts!

"Who Framed Roger Rabbit?" is surely one of this summer movie season's high points.

Eh, b-b-b-That's all, folks.

Wise guy, eh?

Private eye Eddie Valiant (Bob Hoskins, right) confers with cartoon star Baby Herman about how to clear Herman's buddy, Roger Rabbit, of bum rap murder charge, in "Who Framed Roger Rabbit?"

Kirk Players set July 4 wing-ding for Mundelein

The Kirk Players' Entertainment Pavilion, a traditional mainstay of the Mundelein Community Days Commission's July 4 celebration, will have something for everyone again this year. The stage will be set up in a new location this year. It will be under a tent near the Mundelein munch area in Kracklauer Park.

This year's entertainment pavilion variety show is being produced for the Kirk Players by their founder-director, John W. Lynn, ably assisted by their special activities committee.

The entertainment will be continuous from 1 to 5:30 p.m., Monday, July 4, and it's all free, courtesy of the Kirk Players and the Mundelein Community Days commission.

The variety show will open with a half hour of dance from the dance company of Bataille Academy of Wauconda. That will be followed by fifteen minutes of sweet gospel singing from the Cross Connection (Jeanette and Tabra Ray of Antioch), and at 1:45 p.m. by Mundelein's own champion Irish dancer, Kelly Horton, and McNulty's Irish dancers.

Two o'clock brings on Gerry Traxler's Choral Dynamics for a 45 minute concert followed at 2:45 p.m. by a special appearance by our 1987 Junior Miss Mundelein, Desiree Russell, who will do the number that made her the STARS Illinois state grand talent winner in mid-June.

The second half of the show kicks off with the first public introduction (other than the parade) of the 1988 Little Miss, Junior Miss and Miss Mundelein. These reigning queens will present trophies to the parade trophy winners.

After the parade trophy presentations, the show will continue with the Lake County Fair amateur talent contest in concert, featuring several finalists from the 1987 contest. A group of youngsters from Kim Kalla's Dance Studio in Lake Villa will present a 22 minute recital including members of the route that won the junior division of the 1987 Lake County Fair amateur talent contest and came in fourth in the state.

Loren Sielman of Hawthorn Woods and B.G. Nevitt of Grayslake, who were last year's adult division winner and runner-up, will also be on hand with their very special brand of singing.

The Kirk Players' own professional storyteller, Carol Marie Fischesser, will weave her special magic with 15 minutes of short tales at 4:15 p.m. She will be followed by Mundelein's Suzi Becker with a half-hour of vocals and, perhaps, a surprise or two.

Again this year, the highlight of the show (especially for children) is expected to be the return appearance of the original Garfield Goose and his television friends at 5 p.m. Bruce and Claire Newton, creators of Garfield Goose, will be making their fifth trip to the entertainment pavilion.

Waukegan hosts beach volleyball

Waukegan's Lake Jose Cuevro Amateur Beach Volleyball tournament set for Saturday and Sunday, July 2 and 3.

The tournament is open to the public for a $20 entry fee per two person team. Categories are open and B; open for being the best and most experienced player and B being for beginners. The event is drawing between 75 to 100 teams and crowds up to 4,000 in all of the 10 northeastern states on the tournament circuit. Waukegan is the fourth tournament location.

"Jose Cuervo is encouraging any and all level players to come out and join the fun," stated City of Waukegan Special Events Dir. Debra Davis.

For entry forms, call the City of Waukegan Special Events office at (312) 360-9000, ext. 513.

WHAT CONDITION IS YOUR SPINE IN?

The condition of your spine has a direct relationship to your health. The spinal cord is the lifeline of the body. If you are having the sensations of numbness in the hands or feet, electric shock sensations, hot spots, cold spots, constant stinging or even burning, chances are your spine is not in the condition it should be in. These are signs of severe chronic nerve irritation and should be cared for before more serious irreversible complications occur.

Pinched nerves can be the cause of:

1. Headaches
2. Neck Pain
3. Shoulder Pain
4. Difficulty Breathing
5. Lower Back Pain, Hip Pain, and Pain Down the Legs.

Lake Oldtimers win

Rules were bent a little, and the fastballs lost a few miles per hour from previous years, but baseball was the big winner in the Lake County-Sasha County Oldtimers battle today in Kenosha.

Mike Gilroy organized the Lake County contingent. Gilroy has been involved in Lake County recreation for all of one form or another since the 1950s. In 1955, his team won the title.

"They let us play here once every year," Gilroy said just before the start of the game at Simmons Field.

"We've known most of the players for a long time," Gilroy said.

In order to speed up the game, there were three balls and two strikes used. Lake County scored three times in the first inning and pitcher Gerry Beriter was that stand up for a 3-1 win. Kenosha County Oldtimers pitcher Mike Becker didn't allow a run for six of the seven innings.

During the Kenosha Twins game, several celebrities were in the stands, viewing several baseball trivia questions. Because the hated Mets were at Rigley Field, Bud Harrelson, now a coach and other ex-big-leaguer, Bill Stoneman (who was watching his son play for the Quad Cities Angels) along with Wally Backman (Met) and Larry Stoneman (who played with several teams and is now a baseball broadcaster) were in attendance.

Summer tournaments

Football City in Hainesville is planning for several upcoming July tournaments.

On July 4, a women's invitational tournament with t-shirts and trophies and a regional qualifying appearance will be at stake. A men's Class "D" tournament will also be held the July 4 weekend.

A $1,000 first prize will be at stake in a two-day Reach for the Best Grand Slam Invitational July 9 and 10. Prize money will also be awarded for second place, $500 and $250 for third place.

Football City owner Otis Carter said football tournaments are being planned.

Hospice nears

The Seventh Annual STAR Hospice Golf and Tennis Benefit sponsored by Saint Therese Hospital is scheduled for today, July 11 at Glen Flora Country Club in Waukegan.

"I feel certain that the benefit will not only be enjoyable for the participants, but will prove to be financially successful for the STAR Hospice program," committee chairman Richard Kennedy said.

Those who cannot participate in the golf and tennis benefit, but wish to make a donation to the STAR Hospice program, may consider sponsoring a table, a sand trap, water hazard, practice area or golf cart. All such contributions will be acknowledged by sponsor-donor signs placed on the course during the event.

Those people interested in taking part in this year's benefit are urged to submit their reservations as soon as possible. The package for the benefit includes all green fees, golf or tennis, breakfast for early risers, lunch, dinner and gratuities for $150 a person. Tickets are also available for dinner only in limited amounts. Reservations are required.

For more information, contact the public relations department at Saint Therese Medical Center at (312) 360-0009.

Indians settle for a split, but still alive in Shoreline League race

Gurnee's Indians fell victim to one of the oldest baseball sayings by baseball philosopher Yogi Berra during a doubleheader against Lake Forest Sunday.

The person who gave the baseball world "it ain't over until it's over" probably would have been proud at the way Lake Forest ruined Gurnee's bid for a twinbill sweep. Behind 7-4 with just three outs to go, Lake Forest scored four times in the seventh inning to post an 8-7 win. The Indians had won the first game in dramatic fashion with a 5-4 comeback win in eight innings.

"We let that one slip away," Gurnee Manager Bill Stranowicz said.

The Indians still find themselves in good shape in the Shoreline League race, though. As the league season is closing in on its all-star game and takes the July 4 weekend off, Gurnee is 10-3 overall. The Indians will host Lindy's Twins in continuing a long homestand July 5. Gurnee then hosts Highland Park July 7 in continuation of a long homestand at Faulkner Field.

In the first game against Lake Forest, the eighth inning started with both teams tied 4-4. Joe Vocke started the hosts half of the frame with a single and advanced to second on a wild pitch. Catcher Mike Foote then delivered the key hit - a single to left that scored Vocke for the game-winning run.

The Indians had trailed as late as the sixth inning before Bill Stranowicz clubbed a homer to right field which tied the score at 4-4.

Vince Garwecki picked up the win for Gurnee, his fourth against no defeats. Garwecki fanned seven Lake Forest batters while allowing only three walks.

Lake Forest led early, taking a 2-0 lead through two innings. Gurnee tied it in the third. Craig Wallace walked, stole second and advanced to third on a throwing error. Todd Parola was safe on an infield hit. Mark Ring then came through with a sacrifice fly. Ring then scored to tie the game.

The Travelers again were on top after the fifth inning when they scored twice, once on a homer.

Gurnee came right back in its half of the inning. Ring had the key blow, an RBI single that made it 4-3.

In game two, Lake Forest jumped off to a 3-0 lead after its first three at bats.

It looked like a carbon-copy of the first game when Mike Galdine pounded a homer to left in the third for the first run.

Gurnee used homerun power in the fourth to tie the game at 4-4. Foote doubled and Craig Prather then

Mundelein's team aims for home wins

Mundelein's Legion baseball team has been pointing toward the post-season tournament since the season began.

Now Keith Mione's club will be striving for that all-important late-season momentum with several home games next week.

"We have not had a full team because of Mundelein and Carmel High School games but once we do, we feel we can be as good as we can be for the tournament," Mione said.

Mundelein hosts Round Lake July 5, Lake Zurich July 6 and Barrington July 7. All games start at 6 p.m. at Mundelein High School.

The district tournament begins July 19.

Mundelein has been at or around the .500 mark most of this season, starting last week with a 6-5 overall record, 3-3 in its division. The Barrington game next week will provide a chance to get revenge on the same Barrington team which beat Mundelein 5-3 earlier this year.

"We had three errors in the first inning for four runs and that was the ballgame," Mione said.

Mundelein could cash in on its chances. Twice it had the bases loaded but could only score twice in the fourth and once in the sixth. Barrington added another run in the fifth.

Tony Veechie and Bob Langer collected hits for Mundelein.

No business will be transacted on Monday, July 4, Independence Day. Regular business hours will resume on Tuesday, July 5. Have a safe and Happy Independence Day.

Lake Zurich legion club anxious for home games

When you are in your first season as a team after a five-year absence, there are some prices to pay.

For Lake Zurich's legion baseball team, that price has been a considerable lack of home games in the first half of the season. But all that will change in the next week as the legion nine begins a homestand against Northbrook July 1. The legion team returns to Lake Zurich High for a home game against Barrington on July 3.

The Lake Zurich squad traveled to Waukegan's Bowen Park last week, looking for a better than .500 record with eight games remaining before the post-season tournaments. But Waukegan used a consistent attack to defeat Lake Zurich 6-4 despite a rally try by the visitors.

"We hit the ball well, but right at people," Lake Zurich Manager Larry Boucher said after his team dropped to 3-4 on the year.

Jerry Martin, a Waukegan East product who is headed to the College of Lake County, held Lake Zurich at bat when he had to. He pitched three innings of shutout ball, striking out three and giving up just four hits.

For Lake Zurich, the highlights came on defense. Rightfielder Ricky Splitt, who plays for regional champ Carmel, did his best Andre Dawson imitation, throwing out two runners at third base.

"That was a great play but you have to give credit to the cutoff man, Joe Kloss, too," Boucher said.

The first Ricky Splitt throw came in the third inning when Waukegan's John Becker singled. The second came in the start of the fifth when Dave Atkinson doubled.

Waukegan's legion team was paced on offense by Arlee Williams. Williams reached base each time he was at the plate, garnering three hits and then reached on an error. In the first, Williams started with a singled and then was balked to second and third before scoring on a groundout for a 1-0 Waukegan lead.

Lake Zurich came back to tie the game in their second. Kloss doubled and later scored when Dave Anderson reached on an error.

Waukegan then scored twice off Lake Zurich starter Keith Cichon in the second. Roger Schwab reached on a fielder's choice. Martin walked and Williams drove both home with a triple for a 3-1 lead.

Things got worse for Lake Zurich in the fourth when Waukegan KO'd Cichon with a four-spot. Atkinson started the attack by blasting a homer over the right-centerfield fence. After a walk, Schwab doubled to the wall to score Steve Wilson. Williams collected his third straight hit, an RBI single for a 6-1 lead.

Relief pitcher Troy Ong, who has two of Lake

Zurich's wins as a starter, came on and shut the door over the final two innings.

Lake Zurich then started a rally in its fifth. Ong reached on a fielder's choice. Ricky Splitt singled him to third and Jim Hook then delivered a two-run single, cutting the gap to 6-3.

Anderson led off the seventh inning with a towering homer to right, but was left wishing some teammates would have been on base. Jeff Sweet reached on a walk, but after a force out, Martin got the final Lake Zurich hitter on a pop out for the 6-4 Waukegan win.

In earlier games, Lake Zurich had beaten Libertyville 12-3, Round Lake 12-11 and Vernon.

Warren fares well in tourney, hoping to top Lake Zurich

Warren took off a strong lead at the Wilmette tournament, the Warren girls traveling softball team will be looking for a win when it hosts Lake Zurich July 7.

Warren picked up the win, allowing only four hits. At the Wilmette tournament, Beeky Brace pitched and hit Warren to a 20-0 win against Palatine. Brace, a Grant High School graduate, allowed two hits while batting three-for-three. Former Bulldog teammate Janice Selle hit two-for-two and scored two runs.

In game two, Warren defeated St. Charles as Quilty fired a one-hitter and struck out 13. Heather Olejeak led the Warren first handed Waukegan a 13-2 win. Laurie Urban was the winning pitcher.

Warren's Keli Mann was two-for-two and scored three runs. Kathleen Quilty was two-for-three scoring twice.

Two days later, Warren hosted Crystal Lake and won 10-1. Linda Braee and Terri Ingalls each had two hits in four at-bats. Urban again picked up the win, allowing only four hits.

At the Wilmette tournament, Beeky Brace pitched and hit Warren to a 20-0 win against Palatine. Brace, a Grant High School graduate, allowed two hits while batting three-for-three. Former Bulldog teammate Janice Selle hit two-for-two and scored two runs.

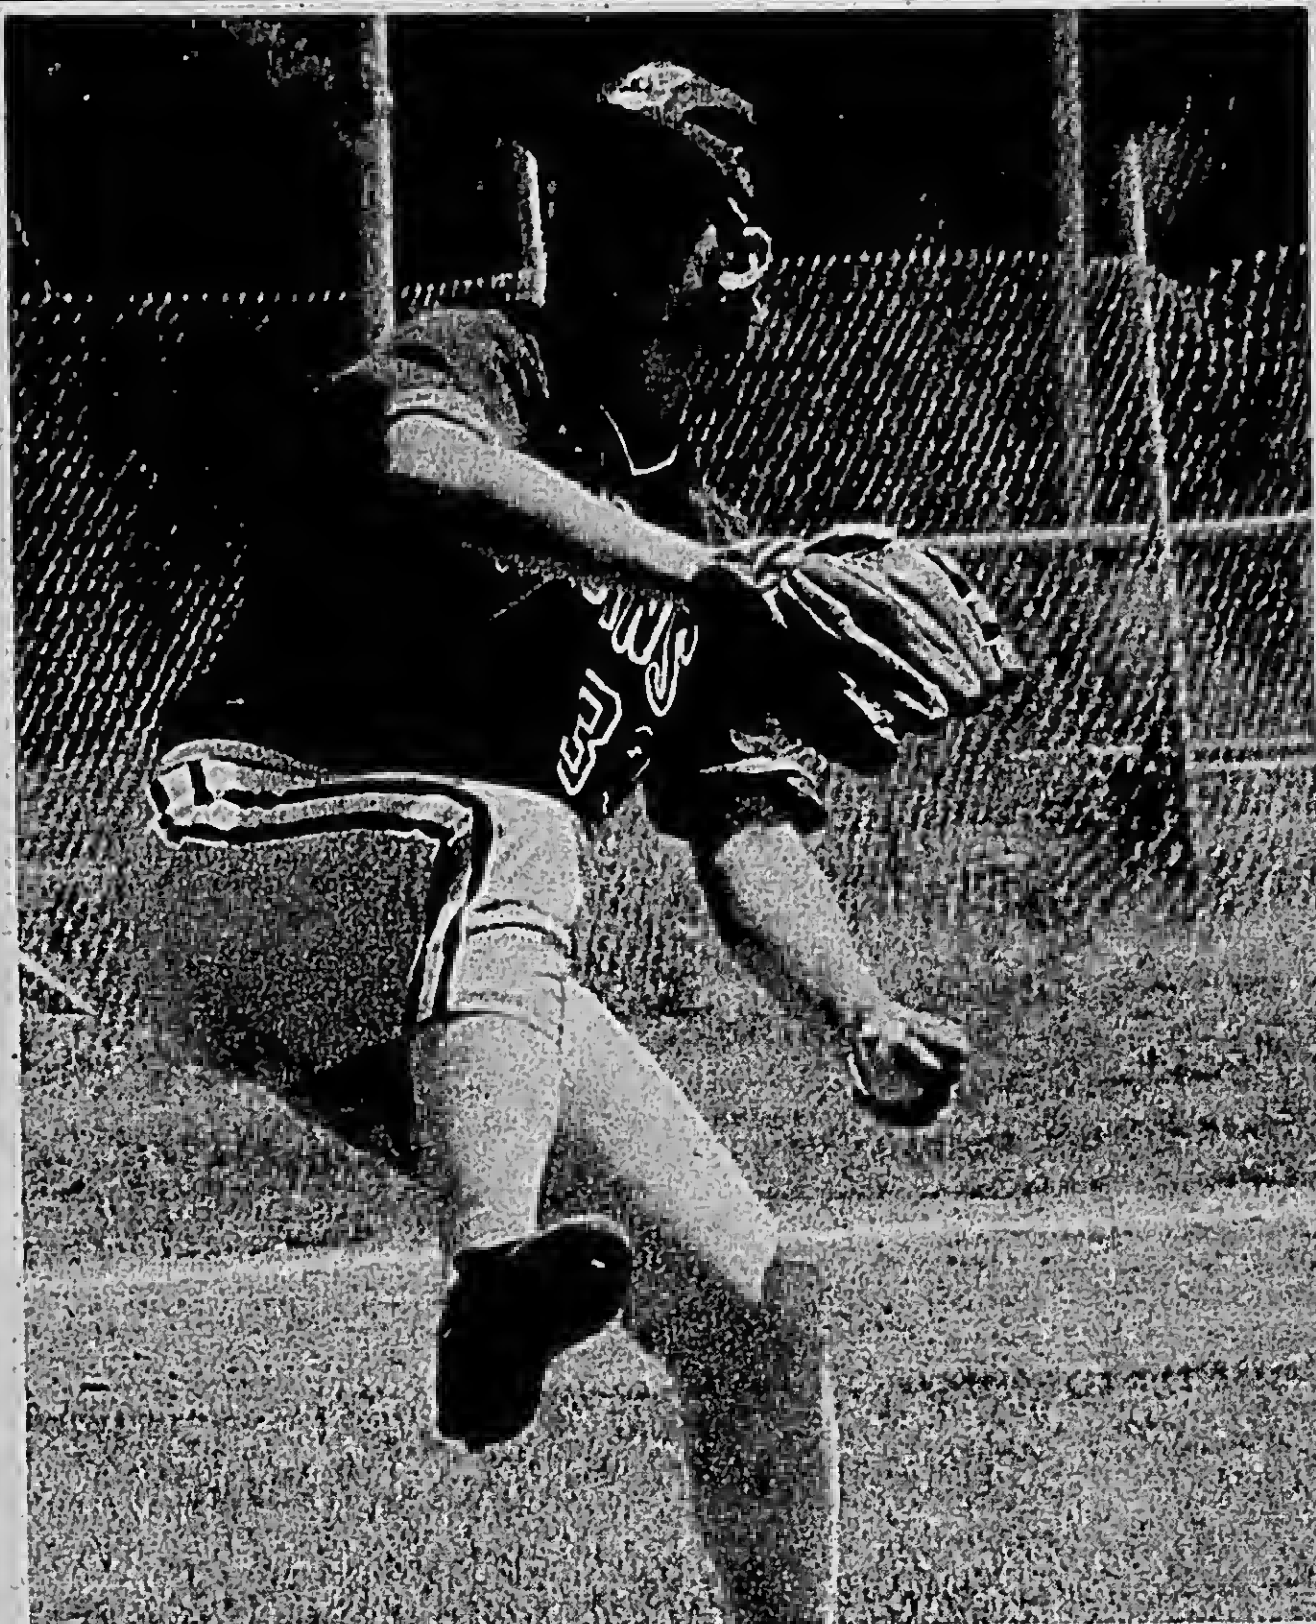

In game two, Warren defeated St. Charles as Quilty fired a one-hitter and struck out 13. Heather Olejeak led the Warren attack with a two-for-three game.

Four hits seems to be Urban's number as that is the number she allowed as Warren posted a 10-0 win over Orland Park. Selle was three-for-three and Ingalls had two safeties in three at-bats.

The third day of the tournament Warren continued its winning ways, beating Rockford Lazers 5-2. Warren had to come from behind in this one. An Ingalls bunt scored Kelly Browder and Carrie Ryan then had the game-winning hit in the final inning.

Warren's good fortune then ended, though, as Warren fell 6-1 to host Wilmette.

Winding up

Gurnee Indians pitcher Vince Gawrecki winds up before releasing another pitch in Shoreline League action against Lake Forest. Gurnee rallied from 4-2 deficit to post 5-4 win in eight innings. Gawrecki, winning pitcher for Indians, notched his fourth win by striking out seven batters and walking three. Rosenberg, Ree claim titles at Mundelein tennis tournament

Participants in the Lake-Penn-Lakeland Newspaper tennis tournament are taking the 4th weekend off, preparing for the July 9 and 10 meet hosted by Park Dist.

Len Rosenberg is the best winner in the men's bracket, defeating Breklemans in a three-set match at Mundelein Sunday. Rosenberg won the first set 6-4, lost the second 6-2 before winning the third and decisive set 6-3. Rosenberg automatically qualifies for the championship tourney to be held in Mundelein in August.

In the men's bracket point standings, Breklemans leads, though, with six points while Tom Westburg and Mark Nordby each have four. Six players are tied at three points each. Breklemans had three points from the Mundelein tournament as did Hughes Chassagne. Bill Hahn, Ben Floyd, Jim Carson and Lester Larkin each had two points. Five players earned a single point.

Court aides appointed

Marshall Hartman, Lake County Public Defender and Robert A. Zastany, court administrator have been appointed by the Illinois Supreme Court to a statewide committee on Implementation of Jury Standards in Illinois.

The objective of this Committee is threefold: The first objective is to determine the exact state of jury management in Illinois today.

The next is to measure those practices against not only nationally accepted management standards as published by the American Bar Assn., but also against the innovations of courts in other states. This comparison will assist the Committee to determine what standards should be recommended to the Supreme Court, and be codified by changes to the Illinois Revised Statutes and/or the Supreme Court Rules.

The last objective is to provide the trial courts with legal, technical and, where possible, financial assistance so that they may successfully integrate these changes into their system.

Hartman and Zastany will join 14 other individuals from around the state including judges, clerks, state's attorneys and private attorneys to study this issue.

LAKE COUNTY

PHONE

Crime Stoppers and the Lake County Sheriff's Dept. are seeking information on two incidents. The first is a fatal hit and run pedestrian accident occurring on St. Mary's Rd. 150 feet north of Greenbriar Rd. in the village of Green Oaks.

On June 6, between the hours of 4:45 and 5:30 a.m., a 23-year-old female wearing a blue pullover, gold sweat pants and white tennis shoes was struck by a vehicle while she was jogging northbound on St. Mary's Rd. It is believed the offending vehicle was also traveling northbound at the time of the accident.

Possible striking vehicle might be described as a 1975 through 1979 Lincoln Town Car, black in color. Damage to the vehicle would be on the right front fender and windshield. The vehicle would also be missing a chrome right side molding further described as a possible door molding.

Crime Stoppers and the Round Lake Beach Police Dept. are seeking information concerning an armed robbery in a bank parking lot located at 100 West Rollins Rd. in Round Lake Beach.

The incident took place on June 13 at 10:30 a.m. An employee from the Burger King Restaurant was confronted in the parking lot by a subject with a gun demanding the money from the employee. After receiving the money, the offender fled on foot towards Lake Shore Drive.

The offender was described as a Spanish male, 5 foot, 8 inches in height, in his early 20s, and wearing painter pants with a pink shirt.

Anyone with information concerning this crime or any crime should call Crime Stoppers at (312)662-2222. Should this information lead to an arrest and indictment, the caller will be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000.

Remember, Crime Stoppers needs tips, not names.

Democrats nominate Baker for coroner

Robert L. Baker, M.D., a 10-year resident of Green Oaks near Libertyville, has been slated as the Democratic candidate for Lake County Coroner in the Tuesday, Nov. 8, general election.

A graduate of Yale University and the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, Dr. Baker served as senior physician for Exxon Company, U.S.A., where he supervised the health maintenance of 1,800 employees. He was subsequently employed as associate medical director of the Dept. of Medical Services in the Pharmaceutical Products Div. of Abbott Laboratories in North Chicago. Following residency training at Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago, Dr. Baker applied his clinical and industrial training as a medico-legal consultant.

As a result of his training in anesthesiology and emergency medicine, Dr.

Baker is acutely concerned about preventive medicine and public safety. He is a member of the Chicago and Illinois State Medical Societies and the American Medical Assn.

"We are very pleased to present voters of Lake County with such an unusually well qualified candidate for coroner," stated party chairman Betty Ann Moore. "Dr. Baker's credentials will add a new dimension of professionalism to that sensitive office."

Water run on Sunday

Lindenhurst Park District will host a summer water carnival on Sunday, July 10, for all area residents.

The day will kick off at noon at Linden's Landing at the corner of Witchee and Sprucewood Lanes. Activities will include a sailboat, innertube, paddleboat races. There will also be a water balloon toss and golden nugget hunt.

Signups for the various events will be taken at the Lindenhurst Village Hall, 2301 E. Sand Lake Rd. through Wednesday, July 6.

Business will find manger

Kwik Pantry food store, service station and liquor store at Rte. 83 and Grand Ave. has 30 days from mid-June to hire a manager that is also a Lake Villa resident.

When informed the former manager, who also lived in Lake Villa, had quit, the village board said it would not make an exception to its ordinance. Instead, it gave the owner 30 days to find a new manager.

Station to get sign

New Amoco service station to be built at the northwest corner of Deep Lake Rd. and Grand Ave. has received a special exception for a new-type of sign. It will be a 24-foot, pedestal-style sign visible from several angles.

When the oil company received approval last fall of its plans the village had no sign ordinance. A proposed ordinance requires a 100-foot setback for advertising signs.

Since this is an identification sign and the sign ordinance is not yet in effect, the oil company wants only a five-foot setback. The exception was granted at a June meeting of trustees. The oil company will be required to relocate the sign if it becomes obtrusive or is judged unsatisfactory.

How does local day care measure up for parents looking for openings?

by IRIS MAYFIELD

Most private day care homes are not licensed as opposed to commercial day care centers. However, is this necessarily bad? This third in a series on day care, in the Lakeland area, deals with private-home day care. Private home day care is here defined as, a person caring for children in their own home.

The reasons given for not being licensed are twofold. First, some are not aware the state requires that anyone caring for four or more children under the age of 12, including their own, must be state licensed. Second, some are aware of the need to be licensed, but find the six to nine-month process overwhelming and too expensive to contemplate.

Then there are those who are licensed. One woman from Round Lake Beach, Yvonne Schrimpf, described the steps that she, her husband, and her pets took in order to get her license to operate day care in her home.

She sent an application in to the Dept. of Children and Family Services (DCFS), which is the licensing body for all day care in Illinois. They in return sent her a booklet on rules and regulations. She went through the booklet and set out to meet their safety and health specifications.

Then DCFS sent a representative out to her house for an inspection, as well as talking to her. Considering her appropriate, after the in-home visit, Schrimpf was then able to apply for a state license. This took four months.

A stipulation to acquire a license is that all family members be free of disease. Consequently Yvonne Schrimpf and her husband had to have an X-ray, a skin test for tuberculosis, and be tested for any other communicable disease. Her dog had to have all shots and be kept away from the children she would care for.

When she received her license, she was allowed to take in up to eight children only.

A woman in Wauconda is typical of most who advertise openings in the newspaper, in that they are not state licensed. She presently cares for two children. While she said she was not state licensed, "I will be by the end of the year. I still have a lot of requirements I have to meet. I'm tryng to meet the state requirements."

Another example is a private day care home in Round Lake Beach, which isn't state licensed and advertises in the newspaper. The woman said she had gone through a lengthy process of applying for a license, had spent $120 to have medical checkups for herself and her family, sent the medical report to DCFS 6 months ago. However, she said the time has elapsed for her medical records to still be valid, even if DCFS finally came through with a response to her application. She would now have to get her family re-examined. She said she couldn't afford that.

"That's where I ran into the snag," she said. "Otherwise I would be licensed. I shouldn't be babysitting according to their law."

While most private homes were found not to be licensed, some were. A woman in Pistakee Highlands, licensed, averages 6 to 7 children with her own child. She said the state told her the children must be evenly divided into two age brackets.

She charges $60 per week or $15 per day, which she said is all the traffic will bear. "If I charged more I would have fewer children, and if I charged less I would not make as much." She said she can't make a living from it. She has other income to supplement this.

She said the state checks her regularly to see that nutritious meals are served, that she is not open more than 12 hours, has toys suitable for age groups, children have clean linen and toilet facilities, have a bed to sleep on, and that the home is clean. "It was easy to become qualified," she said.

In Antioch, an unlicensed home offers references from parents she previously cared for. She charges $10 per day per child plus $1 a day for meals.

Lake Villa adds ban on sprinkling

Like most other Lake County villages and communities, Lake Villa has imposed a sprinkling ban. It took effect last week when fears developed about the underground aquifer from which the village gets its water. The same water vein is used by Lindenhurst, Antioch and surrounding farms, individuals and businesses.

Lake Villa has four wells and one elevated storage tank. Since the drought began the village had pumped an average of 450,000 gallons of water per day compared to the normal 180,000 to 200,000 gallons.

Restrictions imposed June 20 call for those with odd-numbered addresses to water Mondays and Wednesdays and those with even-numbered addresses to water on Tuesday and Thursday. Hours to water are 8 p.m. to midnight.

No watering is allowed on Friday, Saturday or Sunday.

Penalty for ignoring the ban is a $50 fine for the first offense up to $250 for subsequent violations. However, the police have the option of issuing a warning ticket for the first violation.

Cottonwood tree will be trimmed

Lindenhurst has decided not to spare a cottonwood tree that is more a nuisance than a thing of beauty. The tree in Lewis Field was there before Lindenhurst was a village, according to some estimates.

The three-limbed tree overhangs a fence into the back yard of Deborah Duba at 2325 Carriage Ln. She asked the village to trim the portion of the tree encroaching on her property. Village trustees hesitated, saying this would set precedent and would eventually require trimming of trees along parkways and streets that overhang private property.

When Duba heard this she contacted an attorney. She explained the

Caring for

Yvonne Schrimpf offers licensed day care in her Round Lake Beach home. With a BA in education, a certificate in child care, and years of experience working with Girl Scouts and other children's group, she has no openings. One floor of her home is turned over to child care. It has a housekeeping area with stove, refrigerator sink and much more. A schoolroom atmosphere is created with the 20-foot alphabet train on an wall, the desks, the variety of books, crayons, hand-made craft items, and crates and wooden blocks to challenge young creative minds. All over are stuffed animals, innumerable tables; one with a tea set, another with a general store, to name a few. Outside on the front lawn is a variety of trikes, toys, and two pools used considerably lately.

Managers select 15 boys to travel to La Crosse

Major League managers met and selected the 15 boys who will comprise the 12 year old All Star team which will represent Lake Zurich in the La Crosse Baseball Tournament July 22, 23, and 24 in La Crosse, Wisconsin.

The managers feel these boys represent the best of the 12 year olds playing in the majors. Selected from the Koffee Kup Astros were James Cuellar, Landon Rose, Derek Touchette, and Brian Winkelman. From the Prudential Braves Jeremy Siegel. From the LZ Jaycees Cardinals were Michael Gavigan and John Wascow. From Koldon's Dodgers were Bryan

Lamb and Scott Staples. From United Savings Phillies Cliff Nellis was picked. Selected from the First National Bank Sox we have Gage Steffens. From the State Bank Tigers were Bryan Haigh, Andy Goglin and Brian Kretschmer. And, from the Just Video Yankees we have David Lexau. Manager of this team will be Tigers Mike Longfield with Tigers coaches Chuck Haigh, Aurel (J.R.) Goglin, and Pat Kretschmer.

In addition to playing in the La Crosse Tournament, these boys will also compete in a Wauconda tournament and our own Lake Zurich Tournament.

Intermediate Girls in St. Charles Tournament

The Intermediate 11-12-year-old girls participated in the St. Charles Softball Tournament on Saturday, June 23, winning 2 and losing 3 by one run each.

The first game, Lake Zurich beat Lombard 10 to 8—led by Bobyn Bech who was 3 for 3 with a home run. Jodi Witt was 3 for 3, with a double and single and Robin Hildebrandt had a triple.

The second game against the Arlington Cardinals saw Lake Zurich lose 17-18 despite Tina Gundlach's efforts of 3 for 3 with 3 home runs, a triple and 3 singles. Elsa Konka was 3 for 4 with 3 home runs, also, and a double. Robin Hildebrandt was 3 for 4 with a home run, single and double.

In the third game, Lake Zurich beat the Arlington Redbirds with Hildebrandt going 3 for 3. In the final game, LZ went two extra innings against Lombard before losing by 1 in the 11th. Karl Kowalsky was 3 for 4 in the game. Kelly Todd was 4 for 5 with 3 singles and a double. Gundlach and Nichole Mikolay were 3 for 3; Gundlach with 3 singles and a home run and Mikolay with 3 triples and a single.

Defense was excellent, and Kerri Campbell, Amanda Ziska, Jenni Ladd, Chris Znoski and Jessica Kubleso are to be commended for their fine efforts.

Sox win over Angels, fall to Astros

The Major League Sox on June 24 met the first place American Div. Astros. Despite the Sox' best efforts, the Astros came out ahead 6-4 in the final tally. James Cuellar pitched an outstanding game and hit 2 home runs to lead the Astros to victory. The Sox pitcher was Sean Barkhurst, who also did a fine job, as reflected in the score. Gabe Steffens of the Sox hit a home run, and Zeb Geary smashed a hard grounder to left center.

On Sunday, June 26, the Sox met the Angels at Sarah Adams for a rescheduled contest. The Sox came away with a victory. Pitching for the Sox was Mike Keeler, who also pounded out a double. Gabe Steffens hit 3 home runs; Mike Koehler hit a homer. Dan Stasiek also homered. Excellent hits were made by Kurt Preble, Jeff Blalochowski and Zeb Geary.

LZ Girls' Div. All-Star Games

The three Lake Zurich Girls' Divisions held their All-Star Games on Sunday, June 26. The Intermediate Girls Division began at 4 p.m. with the Red team the 26-15 victors over the Blue team. The Blue team had Becky Krueger, Ellen Cunnie, Kim Campbell and Tara VonFelt. From the Wildcats: Angie Jacobs, Vicki Pope, Amanda Kosman and Katie Schayer from the Sherks. Shannon Heselhurst, Coleen Bell, Marissa Messier, Lis Stump and Kristy Yundt from the Panthers.

The Red team consisted of Cougars Amy Ohrt, Amanda Leneberg, Ginny Ollott and Amy Estoclan; Crusaders Marisa Schweda, Mikki Selzer, Shannon and Dawn Cooper; tigers Karolyne Sprague, Beth Guidici, Julie Belmont and Shannon Sullivan. The Blue Team scored 15 runs on 11 hits. The Red Team scored 26 runs on 21 hits.

The second game was for the Senior Girls 15-18 Div. The Blue team were the victors in a 19-4 rout of the Red team. Team members of Blue were Jenny Minister, Natalie Goglin, Shari Witt, Kelly Glynn, Alicia Rlenks and Karen Hug from the Lakers. From the Mustangs were Susy LaCroix, Lori Sturm, Jenny Nigg, Kelly Kaufman, Ann Billmeyer and Lauren Gullaksen. The Red team had Pat Ryan, Kristi Twarogowski, JoEllen Sedlack, Kim Reibold, Audrey Schofield and Kacey Kelly from the Broncos. From the Colts were Amy Wilson, Susy Richtfort, Sherrie Vormittag, Gelle Rosenthal, Maria Preber and Jamie Lemp.

Game bells were awarded to Kristi Twarogowski on the Red for outstanding defensive play and to Kelly Glynn on the Blue for outstanding offensive play going 4 for 4 with a triple, a double, 2 singles and 7 RBIs.

The final game of the day was the 9-10-year-old All Stars. Playing for the Red team were Katie Goglin, Molly Harrigan, Britt Bischoff, Jessica Harrington and Julie Jekonski from the Rockets. Representing the Nuggles were Beth Potempa, Kelly Hoepfel, Megan Kosman, Barb Lolisi and Erin Mergenthaier. From the Panthers, were Rebecca Bell, Jill Yundt and Megan Ganey. Playing for the Blue team were Harmony Hammer, Sheanna Barrie, Lauren Zapallos, Caroline Cerkis, Kristy Killian from the Comets, Nickie Davis, Amanda Knapp, Stephanie Cooper, Jessica Schmitt and Amy Weiss represented the Axes. Shannah Snow and Ellen Brucksch were from the Panthers. The Blue beat the Red 18-11. The Red scored a terrific 7th inning, scoring 8 runs started by a home run hit by Rebecca Bell, Beth Potempa, Katie Goglin, Erin Mergenthaier and Megan Ganey hit singles. Molly Harrigan hit a triple that drove in 2 runs, and Britt Bischoff hit a double with a RBI for a very exciting last inning.

Special entertainment was provided during these games by the Lake Zurich Chicks. Children on the sidelines were thrilled by the Chicks' antics. Thanks go to Jim Wilson for arranging the entertainment, and to Stephanie Schweda for her assistance.

YBA early registration

With an eye to planning for next year's increasing needs for youth baseball, the Lake Zurich Youth Baseball Assn. is conducting an early registration for current players involved in the program. For questions regarding this pre-registration, please contact your team manager or Bob Heinrich at 438-7402, Greg Kowalsky at 438-2506, Tom Klein at 438-8016, Jerry Blum at 438-2251, or Bill Bech at 438-6395.

Broncos take Colts

The Casper Broncos captured both games of a double header Saturday, June 23, by beating the Colts in both games. In the first game, the Colts had the lead in the 1st until the Broncos staged a six-run comeback in the bottom of the 7th to tie the game at 18 each. Kristi Twarogowski opened the bottom of the 8th inning with a game-winning home run.

In the second game, timely hitting by the Broncos along with good fielding beat the Colts with a score of 21 to 14. Both teams were hitting very well, as indicated by the scores.

Tyro league highlights

The Tyro Patriots played on Saturday, June 23, losing by 1 run in the last inning to the Redskins.

Good hits were made by Patrick Boyle, Chris Browning, Jared Conway, James Evanston, Marty O'Leary, Tere Lynn, Utes, Jesse Stellens, Mike Sink, Kurt Reil and Matt Evanston. Battered on the Redskins are Chris Jenke, Mike McGuinn, Greg Moore, Keith Morajda, He Osborn, Dan Peterson, Mike Peterson, Kelly Powers, Derek Sams, Ann Tierney, Ross Tierney and Ryan Wedig.

LZ Wreckers take 4

The Lake Zurich Wreckers, Senior Girls' 16-18-year-old fast pitch softball team participated in the Wilmette Invitational Softball Tournament June 23 and 24.

The Wreckers played 4 games on Saturday, June 23, and won all 4. They beat Elk Grove 6-1, Waukegan 12-0, Brookfield All Stars 7-0 and Golf-Maine 3-1. Sunday, June 24, they played Ken's Klitters to a 14-2 loss in the single elimination competition.

Laura Hoell, on the mound, pitched 2 two-hitters, against Elk Grove she had 5 strikeouts, 11 against Brookfield and 8 against Golf-Maine for a remarkable performance. Denise Funk had a no-hitter against Waukegan, and was two outs away from a perfect game.

The Wreckers played errorless in all their games Saturday. Hitting home runs for the Wreckers were Julie Hoffman, Denise Funk, Stacy Pohman and Tammy Cole. Triples were hit by Funk and Deanna Jacobs. Doubles were knocked out by Laurie Henrich and Deanna Jacobs. There were 5 Wreckers who hit over 500 for the tournament—Kris Kowalsky, Michelle Sellers, Deanna Jacobs, Stacy Pohman, Denise Funk and Lori Kunath. Molly Wilson, a speedster on the bases as a pinch runner, scored the winning run in the Golf-Maine game, going from 1st to 2nd on a bunt, and then scoring for the 3-1 win.

LZ Boys' major league Cuellar's 3 home runs lead to victory

James Cuellar belted 3 home runs as the Koffee Kup Astros defeated the Shamrock Electric Mets 14-4 on Saturday, June 18. Cuellar, who homered his first 3 times at bat, also singled as he went 4 for 4, helping the Astros to improve their record to 18 wins and 1 loss. The victory also clinched 1st place in the Lake Zurich Major League, American Div.

Derek Touchette and Darrin Steffay each had 3 hits for the Astros, and Gabe Foss drove in 2 runs with a bases-loaded single to help break the game open. Astro right fielder Ben Friedrich laid down a perfect bunt to score a runner all the way from second base.

Early in the game, Mets second baseman Steve Bams and shortstop Gabe Kene pulled off a great double play. Pat Olynn had a single and double, while Foss and Jon Olifford each singled twice for the Astros.

Bike ride benefits charity

Fox Lake will host a Cystic Fibrosis Spring Bike-a-Thon on Saturday, July 9. Chairman Sgt. Charles Burke of the Fox Lake Police Dept. said this year's ride theme is "Campaign for a Cure".

All funds raised will go towards research for a cure for cystic fibrosis, the number one genetic killer of children and young adults. To participate, a bicyclist solicits pledges for each mile to be ridden. Prizes are won based on the amount of pledges collected.

A new feature in this event is that a participant can select the prize he prefers in the prize level reached. Cyclists can win a T-shirt, sports wallet watch, over-the-shoulder can cooler, 35-mm camera, Casio keyboard, shower radio, portable cassette player, 55-qt. cooler or a 5-inch television.

Burke is looking for people to participate in the event or to volunteer to help at the event. For more information, call him (or his assistant, C. Thompson) at (312)587-3100 between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Keep status on taverns

Fox Lake trustees juggled liquor licenses and reduced the number of taverns by two, creating two more club licenses and reducing restaurant licenses by ordinance.

When revisions were completed, Mayor William Dam told the council that the changes were accomplished under a policy of not increasing liquor licenses. "There has not been an increase since 1958," the mayor declared.

One of the changes was the National Athletic Club going from a tavern license to club status.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE ROUND LAKE AREA PARK DISTRICT

To the residents of the Round Lake Area,

The Round Lake Area Park District is cooperating with the Greater Round Lake Fire Protection District in cancelling the fireworks display for July 4th, 1988. The severe drought has caused extreme and dangerously dry conditions in the entire area and the potential for fire would be great. Hart's Woods Park will be closed on July 4th.

We regret any inconvenience caused by this cancellation. Best wishes for a happy, safe Independence Day.

Board of Commissioners Round Lake Area Park District.

How to get better results from your Classified ads!

- 1. First, organize your thoughts. Decide which classified reader you want to attract. Consider all the advantages of the item you are selling, and how to present those to your reader.
- 2. Your ad should be easily understood. Avoid slang words and obscure abbreviations.
- 3. Make sure that each sentence of your ad contains only one important idea or thought. Keep sentences short and concise.
- 4. Clear and simple language is always best. Your ad should read quickly, without a lot of wasted words.
- 5. Keep in mind who your prospective buyer is by putting yourself in their place. What is most appealing about your item? Consider what would interest you the most if you were looking through the Classified section?
- 6. Place your ad in Lakeland Newspaper's Result Getting Classified Section. One call does it all! Your ad will appear in all 13 Lakeland Newspapers at one low price...No ADD-ONS, NO EXTRA CHARGES! Over 200,000 readers are waiting to buy!

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Weekly Tip: Outside forces are working with you.

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) A favorable alignment allows you to make progress concerning your financial affairs. Watch for variables where romance is concerned. Attend parties.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) Family and friends are willing and able — depend on them if necessary. Use your clout at the office to get plans underway. Evenings should be restful.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) An active social calendar puts you in the party spotlight this week. Have fun with co-workers. Don't forget the value of a tried and true friendship.

Cancer (June 21-Jul. 20) Someone will need your advice; be flattered, even though this is a time consuming compliment. New faces and places will pervade your personal world.

Leo (Jul. 21-Aug. 22) If plans go awry, don't fret: new ones are on the way. Avoid the urge to be a spendthrift. Check the facts of all stories coming your way. Be patient.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) If cancellations abound, it's for the best. Take time to study your position and how best to improve it. Find ways to seek more personal happiness.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) It's an active week, so gear yourself up for it! A new romantic partner could surface in the next few days. Financial arrangements should not be made now.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Important decisions will keep you awake at night, and they must be attended to immediately. Someone you trust should be consulted on these matters.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) A serious change of direction in your professional life is certain to take you off guard. Examine the consequences of any radical actions you take.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Lay low for a while and restore your reserves. Some negative force has been draining your energy. Insist on perfection concerning business deals.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Interesting bits of information will swing your way this week. Remember: Don't believe everything you hear. Keep your wallet closed for now.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) It's really not the best time to make travel plans, since unknown factors will work against you. Simple but elegant is the approach for you to take now.

If you were born this week, you are most likely a charming, intelligent and relaxed individual (like most of your Cancer cronies). You do, however, have a tendency to get a little uptight a little too quickly. The little things in life are those which get under YOUR skin. Discipline yourself not to let this happen, as your charm and intellect often tell you.
